WC play-off venue shifted

BUDAPEST. Oct 17: Thousands of fans are to miss the first leg of the World Cup playoff between Hungary and Yugoslavia because of a venueswitch, reports Reuter.

Karoly Csiki of the Hungarian Football Federation said it was forced to move the October 29 match to Ferencyaros's Ulloi Ut Stadium as the much larger Nep Stadium was being renovated for next year's European Athletics Championships.

We decided it (Nep Stadium) was not in a suitable state for the game," Csiki said. One side of the stadium, in-

into the weekend.

Inter go to Napoli in one of the three games pushed up to Saturday because of UEFA Cup engagements. The others have Lazio of Rome hosting Atalanta of Bergamo and Udinese home to Empoli at night.

With Ronaldo on fire, Inter coach Gigi Simoni has been able to let his star stand alone up front much of the time, shifting Frenchman Yuri Djorkaeff back to midfield, where the team has other stalwarts in Dutchman Aron Winter and Argentines Diego Simeone and Javier Zanetti. That group should dictate the action against a Napoli team that has looked worse with each outing. The club was the first in Serie A to fire its coach, letting Bartolo Mutti go last week and replacing him with Carlo Mazzone, a retread who was last seen jumping Caliari's sinking ship after overseeing the team's demotion to the Second Division. His debut on Napoli's bench was not an auspicious one - the club let in four goals in the first 30 minutes against Lazio in the Italian Cup Tuesday.

That followed a 6-2 loss to Roma in league play October 5, precipitating Mutti's ouster. The team is in the relegation zone with a 1-1-3 record and a league-worst 11 goals allowed.

While Giuseppe Taglialatela is one of the most acrobatic 'keepers in Italy, he has had no chance this season, in a part because of three key players the club sold off last summer. With Brazilian defender Andre Cruz at AC Milan, French midfielder Alain Boghossian at Sampdoria and playmaker Fabio Pecchia at Juventus (riding the bench, incidentally), Napoli can no longer hope to dictate any aspect of a match. Particularly against a streaking

Ronaldo and Inter. The Fiorentina-Roma game will feature two of the top foreign strikers to ever play in Serie A: Gabriel Batistuta and Abel Balbo, both from Argentina. Batistuta has been the lone bright spot for a struggling Fiorentina this year, leading Serie A with seven goals while the team has dropped three straight league games after a 2-0-0 start. He just doesn't have the supporting cast Balbo is fi-nally blessed with at Roma.

With Brazilians Aldair and Cafu manning the backline, Luigi Di Biagio coming into his own as a playmaker and Eusebio Di Francesco bringing life to the right flank, Czech coach Zdenek Zeman has a lively lineup at his disposal. The team has flourished with his wideopen style and Balbo has six

When Atalanta play at Lazio, they will do so without their fiery coach, Emiliano Mondonico, because of a rare suspension from the league's disciplinary board. The top tactician, who's taken a rag-tag bunch and led it to the middle of the standings with a 2-1-2 record, was punished for yelling "threateningly" at his own players during a 1-0 loss to Brescia October 5.

Other games Sunday: Brescia vs. Vicenza; AC Milan vs. Lecce; Sampdoria vs. Piacenza.

SKHEIKHUPURA, Pakistan, Oct 17: Relentless rain cancelled play on the first day of the second cricket Test between Pakistan and South Africa in Shekkhupura on Friday, reports AP.

Heavy rains overnight coupled with shoddy tarpaulins caused heavy damage to the pitches.

Umpires Nazir Junior and KT Francis, after consulting match referee Ranjan Madugalle of Sri Lanka, called off play for the day shortly before noon local time.

The pitch was soaked and the bowler's run up and the square were not properly covered causing some damage. It's unclear whether play would begin on Saturday.

Ranji Trophy Bengal names Saurav skipper

CALCUTTA, Oct 17: Saurav Ganguly will lead Bengal in the forthcoming Ranji Trophy championship while another member of the Indian squad wicketkeeper-batsman Syed Saba Karim will be his deputy. reports PTI.

Ganguly replaces left-arm spinner Utpal Chatterjee as captain of the Bengal team.

The Bengal selectors also announced the names of 27 probables which included Test discard Subroto Banerjee who has recovered from his injury.

Bengal open their campaign against Orissa in Baripada early next month. A selection trial will be held on October 21 and the 14-member team will be named on November 2.

Following are the probables: Saurav Ganguly (capt), Saba Karim (vice-capt), Debang Gandhi, Nikhil Haldipur, Rohan Gavaskar, Ajay Das, Ajay Verma, Hamza Ferozie. Arindam Sarkar, Subroto Banerjee, Utpal Chatterjee, Shivsagar Singh, Gautam Shome (Jr), Safi Ahmed, Sumitra Majumdar, Abdul Masood, Amitava Banerjee, Snehasish Ganguly, Prosenjit Ganguly, Alokendu Lahiri, Hashmukh Patel, Jayanta Ghosh Dastidar, Devendra Roy. #### Sammer requires more surgery

BONN, Oct 17: European champions Borussia Dortmund confirmed on Thursday that Germany libero Matthias Sammer would need another operation on his troublesome left knee but the club refuted claims that his career is threatened, reports Reuter. "To say that this operation means the end of his career is speculation," Dortmund spokesman Josef Schneck said. The 30-year-old, 1996 European-footballer-of-the-year has had cartilage problems in his left knee after receiving a knock in the season's opening game on August 3. He had only just come back when he injured the same knee in a league match at Arminia Bielefeld on October 4. "I think it's all over," he said at the time. After undergoing minor surgery in a Berlin clinic on Monday he said that the injury was less serious than he had feared, adding he hoped to resume playing in three or four weeks.

Chinese national games

Natants going great guns

SHANGHAI, Oct 17: Wu Yangyan smashed the second world swimming record in five Chinese national days at the games here today, reports AFP.

The teenager from Guangxi province capped a sparkling resurgence by the country's scandal-tainted swimmers by setting a new record in the women's 200m individual medley with a time of 2min 9.72sec.

She eclipsed the 2:11.65 mark set by China's Lin Lin at the Barcelona Olympic Games in 1992.

Chen Yan, the 16-year-old who set the world record in the 400m individual medley on Monday, clocked 2:11.27 to finish second, also breaking Lin's record.

Wu's performance confirmed predictions made all week by China's coaches that the country was again a world force in women's swimming. On top of the world record, Le Jingyi swam the second fastest 100m of all time, just nine hundredths of a second outside her world record of 54.01 sec.

China's swimmers were made the virtual pariahs of world sport after seven were among the 11 Chinese athletes to fail drug tests at the Hiroshima Asian Games in 1994. While denying any systematic doping, the sports authorities withdrew into virtual self imposed exile.

But coaches have warned that they have developed a new training method designed to make a swimmers peak for next year's Asian Games in Bangkok and the 2000 Olympics in Syd-

The return to glory is mainly due to a new generation of swimmers though, with world record holder Liu Limin failing to reach the finals of the 100m butterfly and even the 22-yearold Le could not reach the 200m freestyle.

The women weightlifters ended their national games with a final record to the slew of world marks they have set all week.

Ding Meiyuan took the heavyweight over 83kg class by setting three new world marks. The Liaoning province lifter beat national record holder Li Yajuan by lifting 137.5 kg in snatch and 170kg in jerk for a total of 307.5kg. The previous listed world records were 112.5kg in the snatch and 155kg in jerk, and 260kg in total.

In four days, the Chinese women have eclipsed all the world records in the 46kg, 50kg, 54kg, 59kg, 64kg, 70kg, 76kg and 83kg classes. But the competition has been
