Charming Hemanta evening for listeners

The twilight of the charming 'Hemanta' evening was yesterday blessed by Nazrul Sangeet's wonderful purpose of grace that swept solemnly over the minds of a packed audience in the National Museum auditorium here, reports BSS.

The glory shining on the faces of leading Nazrul Sangeet maestros and their extraordinary performing skill with untainted melodic intelligence captured the hearts of listeners, adding an extra flavour to the atmosphere to further glorify the romantic 'Hemanta' season. Sursindhu, a musical forum of leading Nazrul Sangeet artists, organised the musical session to welcome the 'hemanta', regarded as the most romantic season in Bangladesh. A total of 23 Nazrul songs including thumri, shyama sangeet, modern, folk and patriotic songs were rendered at the session.
