JU probe body to investigate terrorist activities

By JU Correspondent

Jahangirnagar University (JU) authorities have formed a three-member probe body to investigate the terrorist activities which took place on the campus on October 18, official sources said.

The committee comprising provost of Meer Mosharraf Hossain Hall Prof Mohammad Ismail Hossain, Dr M Nasiruddin and the university proctor Afzar Ahmed was formed yesterday.

The probe body will review the overall situation on the campus and detect the persons involved in the incident that left three Chhatra League (S-P) workers injured.

The probe body will also suggest recommendations for taking punitive measures against the terrorists on the campus and has been asked to submit its report as quickly as possible.

Meanwhile, police have been permitted to enter all the residential halls of the university without any prior permission of the authority to nab any suspected terrorist or outsider on the campus.

The standing committee of the hall provosts at a meeting approved the decision yesterday as a precaution to avoid further deterioration of the campus situation.

A huge contingent of police have been deployed at the hall gates and important points on the campus.

BMA condemns attack on medical officer

Bangladesh Medical Association (BMA) has strongly condemned the beating of Dr Rafiuddin, medical officer of Khoksa Thana Health Complex, reports BSS.

In a statement yesterday the BMA demanded arrest and exemplary punishment to the person responsible for the incident.

Dr Rafiuddin was beaten by alleged terrorist Abdur Razzak while performing official duty on October 15.

German musical concert begins Oct 30

Goethe-Institut Dhaka, the German Cultural Centre, has organised Buchberger Quartett and concert of chamber music at Osmani Memorial Hall in Dhaka on October 30, reports BSS.

Noted German artists Michael Hanco, Bernhard Zapp, Joseph Haydn, Bela Bartok and Johannes Brahms will present a concert of chamber music and Buchberger Quartett at 7 pm, a press release said.

The Buchberger Quartett was founded in 1974 by students of the Musikhochschule Frankfurt, main.

Haydn and Mozart founded the "classical" string quartet, out of which developed by the early 19th century a firmly established genre theory. This genre was described as the "culmination of chamber music." Normally it was performed in an intimate, exclusive circle of connoisseurs.
