Leaders placing floral wreaths yesterday at the mazar of Sher-e-Bangla A K Fazlul Huq on the occasion of observance of his 124th birth anniversary. - Star photo

124th birth anniversary of A K Fazlul Huq observed

'Sher-e-Bangla's ideals should be followed to build prosperous nation'

Speakers at a discussion in the city called for taking fresh vow to build Bangladesh by utilising the country's own resources and enriching its own language, culture and heritage. reports BSS.

The discussion was organised in observance of the 124th anniversary of birth of Sher-E-Bangla A K Fazlul Huq on his mazar premises. The speakers said that the ideals of the great leader should be followed to help build a prosperous nation. Presided over by former chief justice Kemaluddin Hossain the meeting was addressed, among others, by Water Resources Minister Abdur Razzak, member of Awami League Presidium Amir Hossain Amu, State Minister for Jute and Textiles A K Faezul Huq, former minister M Motiur Rahman, Prof Syed Maksud Ali of Dhaka University, S M Azizul Huq Shahjahan and poet M Abdul Khaleq.

In his speech, Abdur Razzak described A K Fazlul Huq as a genuine Bangalee and said his emergence as a great leader came as a good fortune for this

The minister said that the Bangalee nation has a rich language, culture and heritage, stressing the need for their flourishment to help develop the nation.

What is needed, he said, is to become Bangalee in heart and soul to advance the nation.

Amir Hossain Amu said that Sher-E-Bangla had played a pioneering role to educate the Bangalee Muslims in the then undivided India. Paying rich tributes to the great leader Amu recalled the contribution of Sher-E-Bangla to political, social and economic fields.

The Awami League leader urged the government to uphold the true history of the country to enlighten the nation and give directives to its people.

Justice Kemaluddin Hossain said the democratic government had been established through the people's mandate.

The former chief justice said the contribution of all great men must be recognised and valued.

A K Faezul Huq son of A K Fazlul Hug, underlined the need for carrying out research on the life and activities of the late

Times-Bangla Trust situation

Newsmen reject offer of voluntary retirement

By Staff Correspondent

The Central Coordination Committee of Journalists, Press Workers and Employees of Newspapers yesterday rejected the notice served upon all sections of employees of the Dainik Bangla, Bangladesh Times, Weekly Bichitra and Anando Bichitra by the Ministry of Information, asking them to resign by October 31 to take voluntary retirement.

The committee which comprises the Bangladesh Federal Union of Journalists (BFUJ-AZ). Bangladesh Sangbadpatra Press Sramik Federation. Bangladesh Sangbadpatra Karmachari Federation and Dhaka Union of Journalists (S-G) held a meeting yesterday at the Jatiya Press Club to review the situation arising out of the notice served on behalf of the Information Secretary asking the journalists and employees of the Times-Bangla Trust to take voluntary retirement.

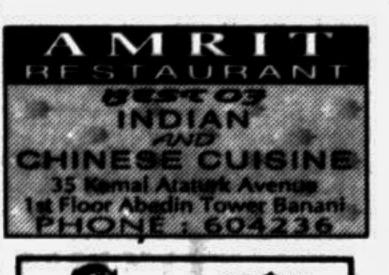

Presided over by Fazle Imam, convenor of the committee, the meeting described the notice as 'confusing and conspiratorial' and urged the concerned quarter to suspend all process of disinvestment of the Trust publications and maintain status quo. It said any attempt to push the future of journalists and employees into an uncertain future would be resisted by all means.

The meeting also demanded implementation of the fifth wage board award in newspapers which are yet to implement it and reinstatement of seven union officials of Banglabazar Patrika.

The meeting was adjourned until 11 am on October 29. It was addressed among others by Ruhul Amin Gazi, member-secretary of the coordination committee and general secre-tary of DUJ, Mosharaf Hossain, Mojammel Huq, President and Secretary General of the Sangbadpatra Press Sramik Federation, Mahtabuddin Khan, Secretary General of the Bangladesh Sangbadpatra Karmachari Federation, Abul Kalam Manik, Fazlul Karim, Saleh Choudhury, Unit Chief of Dainik Bangla, Sadrul Hasan, convenor of Times Sangram Committee and Sirajul Islam, Unit Chief to Times.
