Driver injured, car snatched in city

By Staff Correspondent
An unidentified gang assaulted a driver and took away a private car of a former Foreign Ministry official from Dhanmondi area in the city on Oct 25.

The gang of four well-dressed youngmen snatched the white-coloured Toyota TX Saloon car (Dhaka-Metro-Kha-11-5724) while the driver was sitting inside with the side window open at about 11 pm, said a press release yesterday.

The snatchers threw chilly powder on the driver's eyes, dragged him out and beat him up as he refused to give them the car key. They then sped away with the vehicle.

The owner of the car, Habibur Rahman, has filed a case with Dhanmondi thana in this regard. But police were yet to trace the vehicle.

Mohonganj Samity team calls on Shahabuddin

A 12-member delegation of the Dhaka-based Mohonganj Samity called on President Justice Shahabuddin Ahmed at Bangabhaban yesterday and apprised him of various problems of their area, reports UNB.

President of the samity Dr Abdul Matin led the delegation. They apprised the President of the bad road communications network of the thana of Netrakona district.

They said the people of different unions have no smooth communications with the thana headquarters.

Besides, the thana hospital and telephone exchange are in bad shape which requires immediate improvement.

They demanded gas-line connection and a fire station in the thana headquarters. They referred to the Netrakona-Mohonganj rail line which is being neglected.
