France '98 kick-off times

PARIS, Nov 5: The 1998 World Cup final next July 12 will kick-off at 9 pm, the French organising committee announced here Tuesday, reports AFP. The opening ame on June 10 will kick off at 5.30 pm while all 10 World Cup stadia will have at least one evening match apart from Bordeaux for reasons of TV camera angles in the setting sun. Each stadium will also have one early afternoon match.

First round matches will kick off at 2.30 pm, 4 pm, 5.30 pm and 9 pm, second round and quarter-final matches will kick-off at either 4.30 pm or 9 pm, the semifinals and thirdplace game will start at 9 pm.

However, in order to optimise TV audiences in other time zones the international football federation, FIFA, may make adjustments and definitive kick-off times for the 48 first- round matches will only be announced at the draw at Marseille on Dec 4.

The late starts contrast with USA '94 where many of the matches kicked off at mid-day.

Lindsay in last eight

CHICAGO, Nov 5: Fifthranked Lindsay Davenport advanced to the quarterfinals of the 450,000 dollars Ameritech Cup tennis tournament Tuesday with a 6-2, 6-4 victory over South African's Joanette Kruger, reports AP.

Davenport, the third seed, was disappointed in her serving, but knew that wouldn't put her in too much trouble against Kruger. Davenport watched Kruger play earlier in the week and noticed the South African wasn't hitting her second serve very hard.

In another second-round match earlier in the day. French Open champion Iva Majoli, the fourth seed, beat Belgium's Laurence Courtois 7-5, 6-

Mary Pierce beat Romanian qualifier Catalina Cristea 6-3, 6-3 in a first-round match. Pierce, seeded fifth, used a big serve to overcome her erratic play from the baseline in her first action since the Fed Cup early last month.

Brazil coach Mario Zagallo, who recalled striker Muller after an absence of three years, omitted Edmundo from the squad for next Tuesday's friendly against Wales in Brasilia. Edmundo, scorer of 24 goals in 20 games for Vasco da Gama in the Brazilian championship, hand managed to stay out of trouble for nearly two months until last Thursday when he elbowed River Plate goalkeeper German Burgos. The South American Super-cup tie against the Argentine side was eventually abandoned amid chaos after Vasco had another player sent off and assorted objects were hurled at a linesman, who was carried off injured after being struck. The Vasco player infuriated

Zagallo on his last appearance for his country in the Copa America final against Bolivia. On that occasion, Edmundo, who scored Brazil's first goal in

Inter leave Lyon behind

Italian league leaders Inter Milan bounced back to win 3-1 at on Tuesday and squeeze into the third round of the UEFA Cup 4-3 on aggregate, reports Reuters. Fellow Italian high, flyers Lazio also made it with an easy 3-0 victory over Russia's Rotor Volgograd but France's record entry of seven teams at the start of the competition is now down to just two - Strasbourg and Auxerre - after Bastia, Metz and Lyon were all beaten. There were mixed fortunes for England's two representatives - both former European champions. Aston Villa beat Athletic Bilbao 2-1 to qualify after drawing 0-0 in Spain two weeks ago, but Liverpool were eliminated 3-2 on aggregate by Strasbourg despite winning the second leg 2-0 at Anfield.

Last year's runners-up Inter, chasing their third UEFA Cup success of the nineties, had lost the first leg 2-1 at home but turned the tie round through Francesco Moriero and Benoit Cauet.

Lazio, having drawn their first leg in Russia, cruised past Rotor with first half goals by Pierluigi Casiraghi and Roberto Manchini and a late one from Giuseppe Signori. Udinese looked like making it an Italian hattrick until a late goal by Shota Arveladze allowed Ajax Amsterdam to scrape through on the away goals rule after losing 2-1 on the night.

First half goals by Paolo Poggi and Oliver Bierhoff had Udinese on course until the Georgian player saved the 1995 European champions 10 minutes from time. Atletico Madrid led the goalscorers as they drew 4-4 at PAOK Salonika to record a 9-6 aggregate victory. Strasbourg survived a late onslaught at Anfield but restricted Liverpool to a 2-0 victory — sending the Frenchmen through 3-2 on aggregate. In a near repeat of last season's match against Paris Saint Germain, Robbie Fowler's 63rd minute penalty and a Karlheinz Riedle header six minutes from time, raised Liverpool hopes but they couldn't find the third. Auxerre also lost on the night - 3-2 in Greece against OFI Iraklion - but went through 5-4 on aggregate. Karlsrune SC had also done the hard work in the first leg and their 1-1 home draw with Metz was enough for a 3-1 aggregate.

Seventeen-year-old Catalin Munteanu scored twice in the first half to put Steaua Bucharest 3-0 ahead on aggregate in Bastia. The French team, reduced to 10 men when striker Ermin Siljak was sent off soon after half time, battled back to win 3-2 but went out on the away, goals rule.

Two goals by Robert Prosinecki gave Croatia Zagreb a 2-0 home leg in Hungary, while Braga of Portugal won 1-0 at Dynamo Tblisi for a 5-0 aggregate. Dutch side Twente Enschede went through on the away goals rule after a 0-0 home draw against AGF Arhus proved enough following the 1-1 first leg in Denmark.

Germans TSV 1860 Munich went out despite beating Austrians Rapid Vienna 2-1 (2-4 agg) in a match which saw Martin Viden and Markus Peurk of Vienna and Miroslav Stevic of Munich sent off.

Cup holders Schalke 04 will try to hold on to their 1-0 lead at Anderlecht on Wednesday while on Thursday another German side, VFL Bochum, host Club Bruges attempting to overcome a 1-0 deficit.
