'Youth Fair '97' concludes

LGRD and Cooperatives Minister Zillur Rahman said yesterday sustainable development of the country could never be achieved without integrating the youths in the process of development, reports BSS.

He said the government does not consider youths as burden to society, rather they are seen as development resource.

The minister was speaking as the chief guest at the concluding session of week-long Youth Fair at the Dhanmondi playground in the city.

State Minister for Youth, Sports and Cultural Affairs Obaidul Quader and State Minister for Planning, Civil Aviation and Tourism Dr Mohiuddin Khan Alamgir also addressed the occasion.

Art seminar ends 'Dhaka Biennale' proposed

A two-day international seminar on Asian art concluded in the city yesterday after adopting some recommendations, including a proposition for holding an international art exhibition here under the title 'Dhaka Biennale', reports BSS.

Prof. Masuda M. Rasheed Chowdhury of Dhaka University proposed this saying that the Bangladesh capital as a seat of art and art lovers has already secured an important place in the global arena by virtue of the Asian Art Biennale and other national and international art-related events.

She also proposed that the artists of Asian countries should form a forum of their own, to be named 'Forum of Asian Artists'.

With Prof. Kabir Chowdhury in the chair, artists, I.R. Siddiquee from Pakistan, Zanita from Malaysia, Prof. Matlub Ali and Prof. Sayed Jahangir of Dhaka University, Dr Najma Khan Majlish and Prof. Abul Mansur, put their recommendations at the function.

Other speakers suggested regular publications of seminar papers, selection of artists on merit basis in future, scope for open dialogue and interaction between artists and participants and implementation of earlier recommendations as soon as possible.

Prof. Sayed Manzurul Islam gave the vote of thanks.
