IFC

INTERNATIONAL FINANCE CORPORATION

Vacancy for Financial Analyst/Investment Officer

International Finance Corporation (IFC) is the private sector arm of the World Bank Group. In fact, it is the world's largest source of financing for private enterprise in emerging economies. It offers project financing through loans, equity investments and other financial instruments, such as hedging and swap transactions.

In order to develop capacity within its Bangladesh office to perform a full range of consultative, advisory, information gathering, analytical and evaluative activities in the area of project financing, IFC is seeking to recruit a Financial Analyst / Investment Officer.

The successful candidate's main tasks will be to assist in marketing efforts by preparing proposals/presentations, evaluate identified investment possibilities to determine their financial and economic viability, construct financial models, make financial projections, and structure financing plans. He or she will assist senior investment colleagues through the IFC project approval cycle i.e. project identification, pre-appraisal, investment committee approval, appraisal, decision meeting and board approval. He or she will also liaise and integrate the work of the project technical and legal staff.

Candidates should possess strong financial and analytical skills with an MBA or a masters degree in Economics, majoring in finance or equivalent. Strong written and oral communication skills (in English), negotiating aptitude, and natural capacity to work in a team ambience are some of the critical criteria for success in this position.

Young professionals who feel they have the relevant background for the above position may apply to the undermentioned address by November 20, 1997.

Vacancy for Staff Assistant

Candidates for this position should have a high school diploma (HSC, GCE or 'O' level), around five years of similar work experience in a multi-cultural working environment. A diploma in secretarial science is desirable but not essential. The appointee should be highly proficient with the various Windows based computer software and formatting techniques. Typical duties include : preparing and proofing reports, taking messages, filing, handling incoming/outgoing faxes, making travel arrangements and inputting data into various data-based programs.

Candidates for the above position should have strong command over written and spoken English and should have the ability to work under pressure and in a team environment.

Applicants are invited to send a detailed curriculum vitae, including the names and addresses of three referees (including telephone/fax numbers) to the undermentioned address by November 20, 1997.
