Fund shortage hits Dahagram hospital

From Our Correspondent

RANGPUR, Nov 12: The 10-bed hospital in Dahagram-Angorpot enclave is facing an acute fund shortage.

Purchasing of required medicines has been stopped and the ambulance has been lying idle for want of fuel following paucity of fund.

In 1995 the hospital was constructed at a cost of Taka 35 lakh with a view to providing medical facilities to 15000 residents of the enclave who were deprived of it for a long period.

Under a special programme, a total of 17 staffers including 4 doctors and four nurses were appointed to start a full-fledged hospital.

Thousands of enclaves people are suffering a lot. They are allegedly returning being disappointed from the doors of the hospital.

It is irony of fate that the enclaves which are linked with the main land of Bangladesh following handing over of the Teen-Bigha corridor by the Indian Government in 1992.
