Tyson's longing for fighting

WASHINGTON, Nov 13: Mike Tyson wants to fight again, but still doubts boxing authorities will ever reinstate him after his infamous bite of Evander Holyfield in their world heavyweight title bout last June, reports Tyson made the comments in a live interview on Cable News Network, two weeks after suffering a puncture lung in a motorcycle accident near his home in Connecticut.

RAWALPINDI. Nov 13: (AP. Reuters): West Indies pacemen ran through the Dr. A Q Khan XI batting lineup and restricted them to 267 in the first innings on the warm up match in Rawalpindi on Thursday. The visitors had scored a massive 464 in their first innings. However, stand-in captain Carl Hooper did not enforce the follow-on in order to give his team some batting practice prior to the first Test against Pakistan, starting in third day of their four-day

Peshawar on Monday. When stumps were drawn for the day, eight overs before schedule due to bad light, the Caribbeans were 140 for one an overall lead of 337.

Sherwin Campbell scored his second successive half-century of the match before he was bowled by off-spinner Murtaza Hussain for 54.

Philo Wallace, dropped by Bazid Khan off Jaffar Nazir at deep square leg when he was on 13, was still there on 69 with the help of two sixes and nine fours while night watchman Rawl Lewis was unbeaten on eight.

Earlier, the West Indian pace trio - lan Bishop, Franklyn Rose and Mervyn Dillon - all captured three wickets apiece after Dr. A Q Khan XI resumed their first innings at the overnight total of 142 for one. Only diminutive skipper Naseer Ahmed stood in between the West Indian pacemen, scoring 49 off 132 minutes. Rose had two wickets off successive deliveries before lunch when he removed Bazid Khan (39) and Iftikhar Hussain. Bazid's offstump went cartwheeling while Iftikhar was caught behind by wicketkeeper Philo Wallace. Leg-spinner Rawl Lewis claimed his first wicket at the stroke of lunch interval as Abdul Razzaq (10) was neatly caught in the slip by Phil Simmons.

Bishop grabbed three wickets in the second session with some lively fast bowling. The medium fast did not allow Shakeel Ahmed and Murtaza Hussain to open their accounts while Naeem Akhtar (11) gave Wallace his third catch behind the stumps.

Dillon then wind up the innings by claiming the last scalp of Jaffar Nazir (10).

Dillon captured three scalps for 65 while Rose and Bishop conceded 82 and 83 runs respectively for as many wickets to their credit.

Sampras bounces back

Germany, Nov 13: Pete Sampras took advantage Wednesday of a format that offers losers a second chance and stayed on course for his fourth ATP Tour World Championship title, reports AP.

Rebounding from a surprise three-set loss to Carlos Moya a day earlier, Sampras, defending champion and No 1 in the world, downed big-serving Greg Rusedski 6-4, 7-5.

The 3.3-million dollars tournament brings together the top eight players in the world, split into two groups. The top two from each group advance to the semifinals.

Because of the round-robin format in the groups, Sampras didn't have to pack his bags after losing to Moya. In each of the three years he won the title, Sampras lost a match in the round-robin portion of the event. Things are definitely looking a lot better," said Sampras, who could have been eliminated by another loss. After making 50 unforced errors against Moya, Sampras made only nine against the Canadian-born lefthander. "Coming into the match, I knew it was make it or break it," said Sampras, whose tourleading seven titles this year include Wimbledon and the Australian Open.

"I returned well against one of the biggest servers, I played a very solid game today. I felt like a new player.

In a match featuring two newcomers to the elite seasonending tournament, Yevgeny Kafelnikov beat Jonas Bjorkman 6-3, 7-6 (8-6). "I think my chances are now

90 per cent that I will go through," said Kafelnikov. whose group also includes No 2 Michael Chang and Sergi Bruguera. Patrick Rafter, the No 3 in the world, needed only 56 minutes to beat Moya 6-4, 6-2. Rafter, who had never beaten Moya in three previous career matches, is now 2-0 in the event and is close to qualify-

Playing on a hard court similar to the surface on which he won the US Open, Rafter broke Moya to win the first set, after the seventh-ranked Spaniard sent a backhand wide.

"I decided to try to make every return and the whole match changed with that break," Rafter said.

A spectacular backhand passing shot by Rafter set up another break point and he got it when Moya's forehand sailed wide, giving the Australian a decisive 2-0 lead in the second Rafter, who never faced a break point on his serve, held two match points when Moya's backhand hit the net. Moya saved the first with an overhead smash, but Rafter then clinched the match with another backhand winner, this time a crosscourt passing shot that kissed the line.

"I'm on a roll, might as well keep going," said Rafter, who could move up to No 2 if he wins the event. Sampras is assured of finishing the year as Sampras and Rafter will have a day off before clashing Friday.

Rusedski blasted an ace for a promising start of the match. but dropped his serve after a couple of volley errors in the fifth game.

Just before serving for the set, Sampras needed a threeminute timeout to stop a nose bleed. But it didn't affect his game. "He came out and served better," said Rusedski, who began the year ranked No 48 and has shot up to No 5. The US Open finalist is the first British representative in the history of the tournament.

"It's important we get the team to focus on what's ahead, team manager Horace Reid said Tuesday.

Jamaica need only to avoid defeat against Mexico on Sunday at the National Stadium in Kingston to join Mexico and the United States on the road to France 1998. If they make it they will become the first Caribbean team to qualify since 1973, when Haiti advanced to the finals.

If Jamaica lose and fourthranked El Salvador beats the United States in Massachusetts, El Salvador would most likely advance to the World Cup on goal difference. Jamaica, which drew 2-2 with El Salvador in San Salvador on Sunday, have 13 points, El Salvador have ten.

SAINT-ETIENNE. France, Nov 13: World Cup hosts France were whistled off the pitch after a laborious

2-1 home win, secured with a late Youri Djorkaeff penalty. over finalists Scotland in a Friendly on Wednesday, reports Reuters.

Inter Milan's Djorkaeff, who came on as a substitute less than 10 minutes earlier, scored from the spot in the 78th minute after Craig Burley was adjudged to have brought down left back Pierre Laigle.

The Sampdoria defender had put France in front in the 35th minute with a glorious low drive after Wimbledon goalkeeper Neil Sullivan, winning only his second cap, pushed out a cross from defender Lilian Thuram.

Scotland immediately stormed down the other end to equalise before the French had finished celebrating.

Reabok

From the restart, Blackburn's nippy striker Kevin Gallacher charged down the right to send in a low cross that caught the France defence square. The ball ran free to Gordon Durie of Glasgow Rangers who blasted it into the roof of the net.

"I thought we played reasonably well, but we lost two soft goals. I was very disappointed with how we conceded those goals," Scotland manager Craig

Brown said. Brown felt his side could have even snatched a win. "I think neutrals would say we were a bit unlucky. The chances we created in the second half prove we could have won," he

But he was full of praise for Aime Jacquet's French side, extolling their technique and said, "When the matches are competitive they will be even better. They are still among the favourites for the World Cup next year.

France did not please their own fans in the 20,000 crowd. who became irritated with their early insistence on trying to play the ball right through to the goalmouth, shunning or not seeing shooting opportunities.

The detence was also caught out a few times after the interval but poor finishing by Durie. in particular with a wayward lob minutes before France's winner, let them off the hook.

Jacquet said if the fans were unhappy they had every right to jeer but he explained that his side were still experimenting. "It was not easy against such a tough and well positioned Scottish side," he said. Jacquet said perhaps the most disappointing aspect of France's performances this year was how long they took to warm to the task in a game. They have rarely scored in the first half and had to come from a goal down to beat South Africa 2-1 last month on a similarly cold night.

Vogts fiddles with rookies

Sunday.

BONN, Nov 13: German coach Berti Vogts intends to use Saturday's friendly international against South África as a testing ground for several of the new names he has brought into the German squad - getting the team ready for the 1998 World Cup finals, reports

Schalke 04 libero Thomas Linke and Bayern Munich midfielder Dieter Hamman have a good chance of making their

"Linke forms an interesting partnership with Olaf Thon at Schalke," Vogts said. "It is only a matter of time before he takes the field with the Eagle (Germany's national symbol) on his chest," he added. Hamman could be useful for Vogts because he is both a defensive and attacking midfielder. His type of player has been lacking in the German's midfield and, at times, allowed their defence to be swamped. This weakness had led to unnecessary goals being conceded.

Former Olympian found dead BATON ROUGE, Louisiana.

Nov 13: Rod Milburn, 110-metre hurdles gold medalist in the 1872 Olympics, was found dead in a rail car full of a bleach solution at the paper plant where he worked, police said, reports

There was no indication of how Milburn, 47, wound up in the car at the Georgia Pacific plant near Baton Rouge. Authorities said they did not suspect foul play. Milburn had been assigned to unload a rail car containing liquid sodium chlorate, a chemical used in the bleaching process of paper making, said Patty Prats-Swanson, a spokesman for Georgia Pacific. He was found about 10:45 pm

Tuesday in the rail car by a supervisor who went looking for him when he failed to answer a page. Prats-Swanson said. Steve Chursh, another company spokesman, said Milburn's body was found submerged in the solution.
