SL served a spin scare

CUTTACK, Nov 16: Sri Lanka received a scare ahead of the three-Test series against India when their batsmen floundered on a spiteful wicket in a practice match here today, reports AFP.

The tourists caved in for 198 against the young attack of the Indian Board President's team on the final day of the drawn three-day match at the Barabati Stadium.

Left-hander Hashan Tillekeratne, leading the Sri Lankans in absence of rested skipper Arjuna Ranatunga and vice-captain Aravinda de Silva, was the only batsman to offer resistance with a defiant 77.

The home team, who made 294 in their first innings, were 10 for one in the second innings when stumps were drawn in the rain-hit match in which five hours' play was lost to the weather on the first two days.

The Sri Lankans found batting difficult on a wicket where the ball turned and kept low.

Unheralded left-arm spinner Rahul Singhvi picked up four wickets and spinner Sairaj Bahutule two to cause a stunning collapse by the world champions.

"It was a bad wicket," Sri Lankan manager Duleep Mendis said. "But still I am worried that we failed to cross 200. It was not good work before the Test series.

"Hopefully we will run up some form during nets in Mohali on Monday and Tuesday."

BRIEF SCORES

Indian Board President's team: 294 and 10 for one; Sri Lanka 198 (Tillekeratne 77. Sanghvi 4-44, Bahutule 2-29).

LONDON, Nov 16 (Reuters/AP): After more than 600 matches spa-five straight World Cups by holding off a determined Ireland 2-1 Saturday on goals from star strikers Luis Oliveira and Luc Nilis. Both sides had played to a 1-turnaround for Belgium's Red Devils, who less than a year ago suffered a humiliating 3-0 loss at home to neighbouring Netherlands. Belgium looked eliminated last winter, but a new coach, Georges Leekens, revitalised the team and got it to France. Both finished runners-up in their European qualifying groups, pitting them against each other in a two-leg playoff for another

Susanthika sinks in a sea of agony

COLOMBO, Nov 16 (AFP): When Asia's fastest woman won silver at a world athletics meet, she became Sri Lanka's instant darling. Three months later, she is back with a sex scandal chasing her out of training. Susanthika Jayasinghe, 20, who won Sri Lanka's first medal at a world meet in nearly 50 years, says she is not training because she fears for her life from a high official trying to steal her affections. Jayasinghe, who is the Asian champion and won second place in the 200 metres at the World Athletic Championships in Athens last August, is considered Sri Lanka's best hope for an Olympic gold. She is now dragged from one scandal to another. The Sri Lankan Parliament took the unusual step of debating Jayasinghe. A village girl with modest means, on Thursday after she received death threats for refusing advances made by an unnamed sports official.

"I do not want anyone to meddle with my private life. I only want to lead a happy married life," Jayasinghe said, adding that the unnamed official had sex with her and was now forcing her to marry him.

During the parliamentary debate, Media Minister Mangala Samaraweera accused Jayasinghe of being "deranged," warned her not to be a "dancing monkey" for opposition political parties and compared her to a "black African man." Samaraweera in a forceful defence of his colleague SB Dissanayake's sports ministry, said he did not believe anyone would want "the warmth of Susanthika's body because she looked like a black African man." The minister's remarks are attracting wide spread opposition from women's groups and Susanthika herself. Said the athlete: "I am shocked by these remarks. This is an attempt to make me crazy. What the minister said is an insult to the entire nation.

Sports Minister Dissanayake, 45, said there were occasions when talented athletes like Jayasinghe acted "irrationally.

Opposition legislator Sarath Ranwaka told Parliament a "powerful" figure in the Sports Ministry was demanding sex with Jayasinghe and harassing her. "Is there anyone more powerful than the minister in the ministry?" Ranawaka asked. He said he has tapes relating to the Susanthika-scandal but did not disclose details.

Sports fans are infuriated a the attacks on Jayasinghe who brought Sri Lanka its first international medal since Duncan White won a silver at hurdles in the 1948 Olympics.

Sports Minister Dissanayake figured in gossip columns when he was shown on national television holding on to bouquets Susanthika was presented with on her arrival from Athens.

Jayasinghe's troubles started shortly after her return from Athens. The authorities invited her as an honoured guest at the army's colours night but quickly discovered that she was an army deserter. An embarrassed defence es-
