In ancient times, the word “vanik” was used to describe the pioneer traders who sailed across the seas to distant lands in their quest for better business. Planting the seeds of trade where ever they went, for what is now known as international business. Forging new routes that exist to this very day.

Today as we begin our operation in Bangladesh we will continue to do business in the same spirit of those ancient ones. With the same innovation and entrepreneurial edge that has made us a leading force in investment banking.
