Faulty operation by gynaecologist

Tension mounts over death of patient in Natore

From Our Correspondent

NATORE, Nov 21: The untimely death of a poor mother of five children due to faulty operation by a gynaecologist has sparked tension in the town.

Soneka Khatun, 25, died on November 16 at Natore Sadar Hospital.

Soneka, wife of Abdul Hai, a day labourer of Reeshir-Naogaon village in the Sadar thana suffered for one and-a-half month due to the faulty operation by a gynaecologist. The faulty operation resulted in continuous bile and blood leakage from her body. She was also attacked by Jaundice after the operation, hospital sources said.

According to family sources, the victim was admitted at Natore Sadar Hospital on October

3 She was under the charge of the Gynae Consultant Dr Somar Kumar Ghosh. He examined her Ultrasonographic reports the same day advised her guardians to go to Mahmood Diagnostic Clinic, a private hospital in the town for immediate operation for removing gall bladder stone and ovarian cyst.

During the operation on October 3 night the gynaecologist cut off the 'common bile vein' an important part from her body, physicians at Rajshahi Medical College Hospital (RMCH) said. He also realised

Taka 6,000 from his patient. The doctor took his patient to Natore Sadar Hospital again on October 10 as her condition was worsening gradually.

On October 17, Dr Ghosh referred Soneka to RMCH finding no other alternative to save her life.

When talking to this correspondent, some senior physicians at Surgery unit-2 of RMCH termed the operation performed by Dr Ghosh as a 'major erroneous' one. They also said that a gynaecologist should not conduct a surgical operation like gall bladder stone operation, which is a risky one.

However, Soneka was released from RMCH on November 14 and was referred to IFGMR (Bangabandhu University) for better treatment. But the poor father of the patient, Pachai Sardar was not able to afford the expenditure of treatment.

So, he brought his daughter back for the third time to Natore Sadar Hospital where she died.

Pachai Sardar who is also a small farmer of Reeshir-Naogaon village told The Daily Star that Dr. Ghosh had told him that the patient would be completely cured within 7 days after operation. But, he said, "my daughter suffered for 44 days and died afterwards."

He also said that over Tk 35,000 was spent for her treatment in 44 days. He added that he collected money by selling his cultivable lands and trees.

Pachai Sardar also said that Dr Ghosh tried to release the dead body at the very dead night of her death but failed as he (Pachai) started shouting for help.

When contacted, Dr. Somar Kumar Ghosh admitted his fault during the operation but he said that a conspiracy was going on to hurt his reputation. When asked about performing the surgical operation done by a gynaecologist, he said that he was the in-charge of Surgery unit of Natore Sadar Hospital. Dr. Ghosh remained mum when asked about his advice for going to a private clinic from a government hospital.

However, he denied other allegations. When contacted Dr. Zahangir Alam, Civil Surgeon of Natore told The Daily Star that he was yet to be informed about the matter. He also said that he would look into the matter soon.

However, most of the officials of Health Department, Rajshahi and physicians of RMCH and Natore Sadar Hospital were aware of the incident of faulty operation.

According to sources, there are many other similar complaints against Dr. Ghosh. Meanwhile a report was published in The Daily Star on January 28. It was revealed that Dr. Ghosh was assaulted by the town dwellers for his alleged attempt to violate a female patient at his official chamber at Natore Sadar Hospital.

A three-member probe committee allegedly suppressed the fact in its report.

It is worth mentioning, dead body of the victim was buried at Reeshir-Naogaon village in Sadar thana.

2 get life term for throwing acid on woman

SHERPUR, Nov 21: A court here today convicted two persons and sentenced them to life imprisonment for throwing acid on a woman in 1996, reports UNB.

Judge M Ismail Miah also fined the convicts — Abluz Miah, 26, and Abdus Sabur, 25, of Alenapara village in Sadar thana — Tk 5000, in default, to suffer two years more rigorous imprisonment. The judgement was announced this evening.

The case history in brief: Abluz along with his friend Sabur threw acid on his ex-wife Rina at the dead of night at her father's house at the same village on October 30, 1996 for divorcing him.

After the incident, her father Abdus Kuddus filed a case against Abluz and Sabur with Sadar thana.

Ferry passengers being harassed by lease-holders

BARGUNA, Nov 21: The people who are travelling through different ferry ghats of the district are facing harassment by the lease-holders every day, reports UNB.

Mostly owned by the Roads and Highways Department and Zila Parishad, these ferry ghats are leased out annually under specific terms and conditions including fixation of ghat charge.

But the leasees hardly comply with these terms and conditions. Moreover, they re-allocate high ferry fare violating the scheduled rates.

Besides, the ghats are in deplorable condition having neither waiting sheds nor any lighting arrangements. As a result, the travellers have to undergo a lot of inconvenience in passing through these ferry ghats.

The boats, being used in the ghats, are too small and worn out causing accidents frequently. Sinking of ferry boats in this season is a common feature.

People here alleged that quality of service in the ferry is very low causing innumerable trouble to the passengers.

They urged the authorities concerned to take appropriate measures to stop all sorts of harassment by the leasees and improve the ferry services for mitigating the sufferings of the people.

Smuggling up along Kushtia, Bheramara border areas

From Our Correspondent

KUSHTIA, Nov 21: Smuggling of Indian goods have been intensified after a pause of 15 days.

S M Shamsul Alam, Divisional Commissioner of Khulna Division held a meeting at Hosonabad of Daulatpur thana recently to convince the bordering people about the ill effects of smuggling on our national economy.

According to border people, smuggling of various items like salt, sugar, cotton sarees, parts and accessories of motor vehicles and radio and television, and many other items of daily necessities are being continued as before in a free style under token system. Trucks loaded with smuggled goods are arriving at Bheramara and Kushtia and other places of the country. Eyewitnesses said that Mohiskundi and Pragpur border remain open for smuggled goods and nobody seem to take any action against those anti-state activities.

Smugglers are paying due share in proper places through token system, a well-known way of smuggling.

Victory for BCL at Satpar College students union poll

From Our Correspondent
