Victims of superstition 20,000 female voters cannot cast votes in Patuakhali

BARISAL, Dec 5: About 20,000 female voters in two thanas of Patuakhali district are not taking part in the ongoing Union Parishad (UP) elections due to superstition, reports UNB.

Earlier, some 15,000 female voters covering the same area in nine unions of the two thanas could not cast their votes in the last parliament elections held in June 1996 due to superstition.

There is a superstition that women should not cast their votes in compliance with the social and religious customs. Village elders and so-called religious leaders introduced the custom since the last two decades. And since then the women voters of Sadar and Kalapara thanas are not going to the polling centres to cast their votes.

As a result, the female and male member candidates of these nine union parishads are going to be elected by the male voters only.

While contacted, Patuakhali SP Enayetullah Dewan told that the problem lies in the area since long and they have been trying to persuade the female voters.

Despite the motivational activities of many non-governmental organisations (NGOs) in the area, local conservative people are very much against casting of votes by the females.

A female voter Hazera Begum, 70, of village Gilabunia of Itbaria Union informed that she cast her vote only once in her life some 35 years back.

A young college-going electorate Lovely, 21, regretted that they are the victims of the so-called customs.

Peaceful polls in 5 UPs in Natore dist

From Our Correspondent
NATORE, Dec 5: Polling in 49 centres in five Union Parishads (UPs) under Bagatpara thana in the district was held on Thursday in a peaceful manner.

While visiting some centres in Bagatpara union in the afternoon this correspondent found a large number of women voters waiting for exercising their right of franchise.

In a centre at Berabaria BRDB hall, voters were seen casting their votes at 6:30 pm as they reached the centre before 4 pm, the time limit of polling.

The presiding officer of the centre told this correspondent that it would take more 40 minutes to complete the polling there.

However, local administration identified 16 centres of the thana as trouble prone and deployed Bangladesh Rifles (BDR) personal and police.

They also deployed plain cloth informers at each centre to avert clashes. But, no untoward incident was reported till filing of this report.
