Hingis, Majoli march into semis

FRANKFURT, Dec 6: Martina Hingis and Iva Majoli on Friday continued their unbeaten strings at the Masters of Champions tennis tournament in Frankfurt, to qualify for the semifinals, reports AP.

World No 1 Hingis defeated Anke Huber of Germany in 6-4, 7-6 (7-3), after having previously beaten Mary Pierce of France on Wednesday and Amanda Coetzer of South Africa on Thursday.

Majoli of Croatia, needed three sets to beat Lindsay Davenport of the United States 2-6. 6-2, 6-2. The win could set Majoli up to repeat an upset against the favoured Hingis. whom she defeated at the French Open final this year.

Majoli previously defeated Irina Spirlea of Romania on Wednesday and Mary Joe Fernandez of the Unites States on Thursday.

In Friday's losers matches in Group One, Spirlea defeated Fernandez 6-3, 6-3 and Pierce beat Coetzer 6-4, 6-4 in Group

BOMBAY, Dec 6: India threw open the decisive final Test against Sri Lanka here today after a bold effort to break the deadlock in the three-match series, reports

Having taken a first innings lead of 151, the Indians declared their second knock at 181 for nine after a mad scramble for runs in the final session of the fourth day.

They left Sri Lanka a victory target of 333 in a minimum of 94 overs and the tourists knocked up six without loss in four overs by close of an entertaining day's play.

ICC executive voting for change. Rogers, chairman of the Aushurt after receiving eight tralian Cricket Board, said: "We believe it should be in the form bouncer by Javagal Srinath, Sri of a tournament rather than points for existing matches."

Dr Bacher, managing director of the United Cricket Board of South Africa, has previously voiced his support for a biennial one-day World Cup, but he admitted that the Test plans, which would result in some form of world competition every two years, had superseded that way of thinking.

Provided the ICC give the goahead, Dr Bacher favours involving past Test captains and former greats in ironing out the "nitty gritty" of the championstito's exact shape.

Allan Border, the former Australian captain, said: "A World Championship would not simply enhance Test cricket it would save it."

The ICC have received numerous suggestions for the championship, which could be launched in 2001, anything from a four-team play-off based on ongoing rankings to a complete calendar year devoted to a 16-match league.

Day belongs to Saglain

KARACHI, Dec 6: AFP) : Off-spinner Saglain Mushtag's career-best five-wicket burst saw West Indies out for 216 on the first day of the third and final cricket Test against Pakistan at Karachi's National Stadium Saturday.

A stiff neck kept Pakistan's regular opener Saeed Anwar out of play. Instead Ijaz Ahmed partnered Aamir Sohail.

Both batsmen added 34 runs for the first wicket before bad light stopped play 6.3 overs early. Sohail was unbeaten on 20 which included two cracking cover boundaries off fast bowler Frankly Rose while Ijaz was not out on 11.

West Indies' middle-order batsmen failed to perform on a flat track, which has some slow turn. They lost their last five wickets for a mere 56 runs. Surprisingly, Saqlain did not play in the first two Tests. The 21-year-old spinner proved his worth by claiming his third five-wicket haul in his 13th Test and also captured 50 wickets. On his way to 5 for 54, Saglain bettered his previous best of 5 for 89 against Sri Lanka earlier this year.

West Indies got off to a cracking start after skipper Courtney Walsh won the toss and elected to bat. Sherwin Campbell and Stuart Williams put on 47 runs in nine overs.

Williams was brilliantly run out by Mushtaq Ahmed off a direct throw from mid-off as the batsman tried to go for a needless run. Williams, who could not cross the double-digit figure mark in his previous four Test innings, made a rapid 33 off 33 balls which included six boun-

Lara, with only 56 runs in the series so far, fell shortly into the second session bowled by Saglain for 36.

The selectors also ordered skipper Sachin Tendulkar to bat lower down the order. Tendulkar's 12 one-day centuries have come as an opener

but his recent record of 882 runs from 31 innings convinced the selectors he was better off going in at number four. Sidhu, a regular Test opener, was ignored for the eight-match one-day series against Pakistan
