Repeal of all 'black laws' urged

By Staff Correspondent

Speaker at a seminar in the city yesterday stressed the need to repeal all 'black laws', including the Special Powers Act, and formulation of new laws to contain the rising tide of violations of human rights in the country.

The seminar on "Human Rights in Bangladesh Today" was organised by the Institute of Human Rights and Legal Affairs, Bangladesh. Former Vice Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof M Moniruzzaman Mia and UNB Chairperson Amanullah Khan presented two papers on the factual and legal positions of human rights in Bangladesh.

Amanullah Khan in his paper said that the general laws of the country were sufficient to deal with the offences occurring
