Ganges water treaty steps into second yr
 The Ganges water sharing treaty between Bangladesh and India steps into its second year today, reports UNB.
 Bangladesh Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina and the then Indian Prime Minister H D Deve Gowda signed the accord in New Delhi on December 12 last year.
 As Bangladesh and India share 53 common rivers, there has been a longstanding dispute between the two countries on sharing of water of the common rivers, particularly the Ganges.
 The agreement created mixed reaction among different quarters. It was widely appreciated by the international community, but criticised by the opposition at home.

 To my beloved son Turzo. Today I am not with you. But remember that my thoughts are always of you
 with love

Introducing ZAKNet
 -the revolutionary new satellite-delivered high speed internet service from us.

If a person, organization or business house can have high speed internet connection at upto 30 times faster - imagine what the opportunities are.

First of all the cost of internet surfing, downloading time will be significantly reduced and internet usage will be more efficient and enjoyable.

For example:
 To download 1MB data file on conventional internet, it takes 1 hour and cost about 120 taka, whereas with ZAKNET PC Card it takes only about 1 minute and cost less than 4 taka.

You can also use the same card in a network (LAN) environment where many users can simultaneously access internet at a very high speed.

ZAKNet
 -the world's first satellite delivered MPEG 2 DVB compliant PC Card.

ZAKNet offers fast broadcast internet services which enable the user to freely access media-rich website even without the need to log on to the internet at all. The user can also access several television channels and radio stations. Besides, the user can avail of secure, on-line home shopping facilities.
