Anand, Short reach semis

GRONINGEN, Netherlands. Dec 22: Viswanathan Anand and Nigel Short both reached the semifinals of the FIDE World Chess Championships Sunday, but neither Grand Master knows who his opponent will be, reports AP.

Englishman Short (Elo rating 2660) took the most direct route with a second straight win over Michal Krasenkov (2645) to win the two-game minimatch 2-0.

Anand followed up his firstgame win over Alexei Shirov (2700), who plays for Spain, with a relaxed and unconcerned draw with black to advance by 1 1/2 points to 1/2.

Rokon replaces Sabbir

BCB's surprise selection

National selectors revealed their controversial choice of 14-member Bangladesh team vesterday for the second World Youth cricket championship starting in South Africa from January next year.

The selection committee headed by Luthfar Rahman Makhan, stirred up a row among the cricket followers of the country when they picked up few surprise names with Al-Shahriar Rokon, who is arguably in his early twenties, as the skipper of a side which will participate under the banner of under-20 team.

The panel of five selectors, who opted for a highly questionable change in the squad, has axed as many as five players from the victorious Bangladesh team which qualified for the gala event by emerging champions in the Asian qualifying zone in Hong Kong early this month . Their dubious verdict also went in favour of national opener Mehrab Hossain Opee, who was not even called up in the selection camp of 20 players on December 11. Alf-rounder Sabbir Khan, who impressed the Hong Kong audience by successfully leading Bangladesh throughout the qualifiers, failed to woo the hearts of the Makhan and CO as he was unceremoniously replaced by a rather inconsistant performer like Rokon. But the fate of his fellow key-player Shymal was even worst. The young tweaker, who displayed some outstanding performances to help Bangladesh win the trophy, was unfortunately ignored by the infamous gang at the cricket board, who had never bothered to maintain a standard yardstick in their arbitrary choosing and chopping.

Selectors have also rendered their nepotic nods to three players in the stand-by list. Among the fortunate trio, Saiful Islam was reportedly failed to avail the Hong Kong trip for being over-aged. But Rubaiyat, who had earlier failed to impress the very selectors for a place even in the stand-by list of the team that played in Hong Kong, somehow managed to make a change of hearts of the panel ahead of the axed players. "It is not necessary to pick a strong team which is capable of winning the tourney", added a wishy-washy Saad.

Although BCB officials. oblivious to their recent humiliations in Kenya and New Zealand, still living in fools' paradise, the 16-nation tourney involving nine Test-playing nations along with seven associate member countries is going to be the biggest ever cricket carnival staged by the International Cricket Council (ICC). However, the second edition of the World Youth championship will kick off with the hosts taking on India on Jan-uary 11. The sixteen teams will split into four groups expect for South Africa and India, who will be placed in one group to facilitate the opening match, scheduled to be held at the Wanderers ground.

The inaugural championship was earlier held in Australia in 1988 with eight Testplaying nations participating and the host nation winning the trophy. A combined team from the associate member. along with the players of Zim-babwe and Canada, also took part in the inaugural championship. Brian Lara, Inzamamul Haq and Sanath Jayasuriya were then found prospects in the meet.

This is, however, for the first time seven associate member nations --- Bangladesh, Kenya, Namibia, Ireland, Scotland, Papua New Guinea and Denmark -- have been drawn in the
