- Metropolitan -Plea to uphold spirit of Liberation War

Political advisor to the Prime Minister Dr S A Malek yesterday urged the people to uphold the spirit and ideals of the Liberation War, reports

He said unfortunately we have failed to show proper respect to the martyrs and free-dom fighters who had dedicated their life and resources for the liberation of the motherland.

Dr Malek was speaking at the plaque unveiling function of a sculpture which commemorates the gruesome killing of Shaheed Dr Humayun Kabir and Shaheed Dr Azharul Huq in front of Notre Dame College in the city.

The martyrs were assassinated by Al-Badar Bahini, an ally of the occupation Pakistani forces, the bodies of Dr Kabir and Dr Huq was found in the adjoining canal on November 16, 1971.

The plaque unveiling func-tion was addressed, among others, by Salma Huq, wife of Shaheed Azharul Huq. Momraj Begum, sister of Dr Humayun Kabir, Professor Kabir Chowdhury, artist Aminul Islam. writer Shawkat Osman, Professor Muntasir Mamun and journalist Shahriar Kabir.

Dr Malek said the reactionary force which had opposed the Liberation War is still hatching conspiracies against the democratically elected gov-

He said, we have to resist the reactionary elements to materialise the dreams of the freedom fighters and martyrs.

Salma Huq said we want trial of the Al-Badars in a special tribunal for war criminals. She said it is a matter of shame that the former Razakars and Al-Badars and their patron Jamaat-e-Islami is still flexing muscles everywhere including on the floors of the Jatiya

Sangsad. Momraj Begum said in the last 26 years many political parties promised that they will look after the matter, but nobody kept their words, we hope under the leadership of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina there will be a trial of the war crimi-

Minister says

Laws for rehabilitation of mentally retarded soon

Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Abdul Matin Khasru yesterday said the government has decided to enact laws for the mentally retarded to ensure their proper rehabilitation in society and enable them to enjoy the rights and security like any other citizen of the country, reports BSS.

"Society cannot progress neglecting the mentally retarded persons," said the minister while addressing a discussion on the 20th founding anniversary of the Society for the Care and Education of the Mentally Retarded, Bangladesh (SCEMRB) in the city yesterday evening as the chief guest.

He said the government is committed to ensure due honour and dignity to the neglected mentally retarded, who deserve allout support to establish themselves in their lives as any other people.

He urged the conscious citi-
