Muslim leaders greet President on the occasion of Ramadan

The heads of the Muslim states and governments have sent messages of felicitations and good wishes to President Justice Shahabuddin Ahmed on the occasion of holy Ramadan, reports UNB.

In their messages, they wished progress and prosperity of Bangladesh and peace and happiness of the people. They also wished prosperity and solidarity of the Muslim Ummah. The messages so far received are from the custodian of the two holy mosques and the King of Saudi Arabia, King of Jordan, Amir of Kuwait, Sultan of Oman, Presidents of Egypt, UAE, the Maldives and Guinea, Prime Ministers of UAE, and Qatar, the Crown Prince and Deputy Prime Minister and the Chief of National Guard of Saudi Arabia and Deputy Prime Minister of the UAE.

Need for taking suggestions of local MPs stressed

The parliamentary Standing Committee on Water Resources Ministry in its first meeting yesterday underscored the need for taking suggestions of local MPs in undertaking and implementing development projects of the ministry, reports UNB.

The meeting was held at Sangsad Bhaban yesterday morning with committee chairman Abdul Momin in the chair. Committee members Water Resources Minister Abdur Razak, M Anwarul Islam, Kazi Sekandar Ali, M A Bari and Sharfuddin Ahmed attended the meeting.

Water Resources Secretary Dr A T M Shamsul Huda and concerned officials were present.

The meeting also discussed matters relating to proper and speedy implementation of various development projects of the ministry and responsibilities of its different organisations.

Perform duties honestly, minister asks docs, nurses

Health and Family Welfare Minister Salauddin Yusuf yesterday urged doctors and nurses to perform their duties honestly and enhance the reputation of the health services, reports UNB.

"Doctors, nurses and employees of hospital should put in their best efforts for development of the health services," he told a discussion meeting at Shaheed Suhrawardi Hospital.

The health minister asked senior doctors and physicians to regularly visit the hospital and ensure the healthcare services for patients.

Salauddin Yusuf said Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman struggled throughout his life for a poverty and exploitation free Bangladesh.

"The present government is committed to materialise the dream of Bangabandhu," the minister added.
