The Serial

Baywatch

Jan 2 at 10:30 pm on Star Plus

In Sweet Dreams, Logan finds an abandoned baby in his tower and discovers the joy of fatherhood, much to everyone's surprise at Baywatch. Things are not going well for Logan at all. Caroline has returned his engagement ring, finally ending their relationship for good. Then Logan is caught in his tower with a girl he met on the beach earlier that day, which prompts Mitch to threaten him with suspension. And if that isn't bad enough, Logan finds a baby in his tower, along with one of the many rings he has given women he has been involved with. Could this baby be his son?

SURREALISM

Author: Julien Levy
Publisher: Da Capo Press, New York
Price: Tk 1575

Julien Levy's Surrealism was the book that introduced to America the movement that had taken Europe by storm. Full of poems, photographs, sculptures, paintings, essays, dreams, film scenarios, collages, fiction, and unclassifiable material.

There has never been a more inclusive surrealist anthology than Surrealism, a magical, dizzying revel through a world of fantasy, dreams, and desire.

CRITICAL THEORY AND SOCIETY: A READER

Edited and with an introduction by Stephen Eric Bronner and Douglas MacKay Kellner

Publisher: Routledge

Price: Tk 1387.50

The Institute for Social Research, usually referred to as the Frankfurt School, was the first Marxist-oriented research institute in Europe. Its members attempted to revise both the Marxian critique of capitalism and the theory of the revolution in order to confront the new social and political conditions that had evolved since Marx's death. As a result they developed a "critical theory" of society to overcome those aspects of social reality which Marx and classical Marxism neglected or downplayed.
