Life sketch of new state minister for textiles

A K M Jahangir Hussain, the newly-appointed State Minister for Textiles, was born on January 18, 1954, at Chandrala village under Galachipa thana of Patuakhali district, reports BSS.

An active political worker since his high school days, Hussain occupied various posts of Bangladesh Chhatra League at thana level from 1972 to 82.

He became a member of Bangladesh Awami League in 1983. Later, he became the assistant office secretary of the central committee of AL. He is currently a member of the central-executive committee of the party.

Besides being a member of various parliamentary committees of the Jatiya Sangsad, he is also a member of Dhaka University Senate, National Science and Technology Council, National Land Management Committee, Bangladesh Red Crescent Committee and Bangladesh Blind Welfare Association.

A member of parliament for consecutively two times from the Patuakhali-3 (Galachipa-Dashmina) constituency, he took oath as the state minister for textiles on Dec 31, 1997.

Earlier, he added, "Recalling the incidents of 22 years back, Col Jamil said he returned home around 10 pm on August 14 after attending a wedding ceremony."

"My neighbour and army's chief of logistics, Brigadier CR Dutta informed me that an Indian helicopter involved in the aid of our forces in the Hill Tracts crashed in Noakhali," he said.

Brig Dutta asked Col Jamil to go to the CMH to dispose of the bodies from the crash which were brought to the hospital. He went with Dutta and returned home around 2:30 am on August 15.

"I woke up from sleep around 6 in the morning hearing that my door was being pushed. After opening it I found Major Rashid armed with stungun and Major Hafiz and Lt Col Amin," Jamil said.

Major Rashid informed the Brigade commander about the killing of Bangabandhu and threatened him not to take any action against them.

"At that time, army chief General Shafiqullah phoned me and asked if I knew who were firing on the residence of Bangabandhu," the PW said adding he informed Shafiqullah that he just learnt it from Rashid.

"Shafiqullah also informed me that Bangabandhu had informed him over telephone that the attackers shot Sheikh Kamal dead," the witness said. "The tone of Shafiqullah was very sad."

Later, Col Jamil asked his battalions to be ready and in the meantime Rashid and Amin Ahmed Chowdhury left his house. "I wore my uniform and went to the residence of Deputy Army Chief General Ziaur Rahman and informed him about the matter," Jamil said.

On his way to 1st EBR from Zia's residence, the brigade commander said, he came under gun attack by Major Farooq who was sitting on the aggressive tank.

He said, "The CGS, Brig Khaled Mosharraf, came at the 1st EBR line half an hour after I reached there. Khaled informed me that the army chief sent him to control all operation of the 46 Brigade."

Engineers, workers attacked while building bridge
in Sylhet

Work on 30 bridges being constructed in the Sylhet region with the British ODA assistance have been stopped after a group of people attacked the engineers and workers at Naluri in Sylhet, reports BSS.

A press release of the Columbia Engineers and M A Engineering Sunday said the foreign consultants and engineers stopped work apprehending their safety and security.

They urged the authorities to take necessary steps to ensure their security before they resume the work and demanded drastic actions against the people responsible for the attack.

The press release said an organised group equipped with lethal weapons came out of a nearby mosque and asked the engineers to stop work during prayers as they were casting piles for a bridge on the Sylhet-Tamabil road at the presence of British consultants.

"The engineers tried to make them understand that once the pile casting is started, the process cannot be stopped until the casting is completed for technical reasons as otherwise the whole design of the bridge needs to be changed," it said.

The press release added: "But instead of understanding their point, the so-called muslims attacked them with deadly weapons when ODA Engineer Zahangir Alam was seriously injured."

The injured persons are being treated in hospitals, it said.

Housewife
strangled
to death

A teen-aged housewife Sheuli Begum was allegedly strangled by her husband Nasiruddin yesterday morning at Purbha Rakhi in Siloi Union Parishad under Sadar Thana of Munshiganj district, reports BSS.

According to police, Nasir married Sheuli of the same village one year back. But soon after marriage, the relation between husband and wife got strained over family matters. The husband, at one stage of altercation with Sheuli, strangled her to death.

Munshiganj Sadar Thana police arrested Nasir when he came to be police station with a view to filing a concocted case about the murder of her wife.

Cement dealers in Sylhet refrain from lifting cement

Cement dealers of Chhatak in the district of Sylhet refrained from lifting cement for last three days from Chhatak Cement Factory, protesting the price hike of the construction input, reports UNB.

The cement dealers alleged that the factory has raised the price of cement to Tk 240 per bag early this month from Tk 230.

They alleged that the authorities increased the price of cement 11 times since 1996, forcing us to compete with the rate of the foreign made cement.

Gono Forum slates killing at Keraniganj

Gono Forum yesterday condemned the brutal killing of freedom fighter Nurul Islam in the broad-day-light after the killing of Tarkulal at Keraniganj on Saturday, reports UNB.

A meeting of party's steering committee with Gen (ret) Khallur Rahman in the chair demanded judiciary enquiry into the incident.

It also demanded exemplary punishment to those who involved in both the killings, particularly Nurul Islam, whose body has been burnt out.

Krishak Dal

Bangladesh Jatiyatabadi Krishak Dal has condemned the killing of newly elected UP Chairman and member of its Dhaka district unit Haji Tarkulal Tark, reports UNB.

In a statement yesterday, acting president of the Krishak Dal Mahbubul Alam Tara and general secretary Shamsuzzaman Dudu MP accused the government of being failed to protect an elected UP chairman.

"The incident has proved that the country is being run without any government," they said demanding immediate arrest and exemplary punishment of the culprits responsible for the killing.
