LOCATING THE SELF
Perspectives on Women and Multiple Identities
Author: Nighat Said Khan
Rubina Saigol
Afya Shehrbano Zia
Price: Tk 450/-

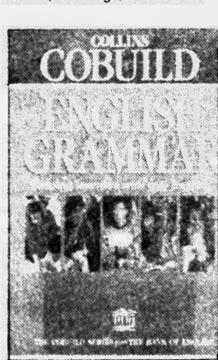

The papers in this volume are explorations of the interplay between ideology and identity and the impact of these on the women's lives, their beliefs, their bodies, their politics and in determining how society treats them. The papers pursue an understanding of the role of religion, history, the media, law, the sciences, educational and foreign policies, ethnicity and literature and the effect of these diverse ideological tools in determining the construction of multiple identities, particularly in women.

VOICES WITHIN
Dialogues with Women on Islam
Author: Nighat Said Khan
Price: Tk 435/-

The move towards the Islamisation of Pakistan, has focused its attention primarily on the place and role of women in Islam, and this has led to a debate on the issue among women, since women themselves relate to Islam differently. This book explores aspects of these differing relationships with twelve women from similar economic and social backgrounds; all of whom are educational, professional and in most cases politically active. Yet their bold diverse and divergent views on what Islam means to them and the place that it should have in society.

WOMEN AND LAW
Contemporary Problems
Author: Lotika Sarkar and B Sivaramayya
Price: Tk 500/-

Women and law: Contemporary Problems is a selection of papers on legal themes contributed to the four biennial National Conferences of Women in 1982, 1984, 1986 and 1988 at Bombay, Trivandrum, Chandigarh and Visakhapatnam respectively. These have been written mostly by women, and are marked by knowledge, practical experience, intense concern and empathy for women over the travails experienced by women in the arena of law.

KNOWLEDGE AND IDENTITY
Articulation of Gender in Educational Discourse in Pakistan
Author: Rubina Saigol
Price: Tk 742.50

This is a study of the educational rhetoric of the Pakistani state. Educational policies of three historical periods, the Ayub, Bhutto and Zia eras, are examined, along with the social studies curriculum of the corresponding periods in order to see the implementation of these policies at the level of the curriculum. The form as well as the content of the curriculum is examined with a view towards exploring the underlying epistemological categories.

Spotlight

MUST'S MUST

Festival is synonymous with clothes through the ages. New clothes add colour to the spirit and mood of festivity and if the wearables come from a designer's collection then nothing like it. Visit Must's on going Eid fashion exposé at Alliance Francaise Gallery to find out tradition married to modernity in sarees, shalwar kameez and on panjabi. The exhibition stays open from 3 to 8 pm till January 15
