Due South

Jan 16 at 10:30 pm on Star Plus

In A Cop, A Mountie And A Baby, when Fraser and Ray discover a baby cooing in the back seat of Ray's car, Fraser deduces that this was not a simple case of child abandonment. He believes the mother is afraid and is running from something. He convinces Ray to give him six hours to track down the infant's parents before turning him over to the appropriate authorities. Using clues drawn from the baby's food and clothing they are able to track down the father.

DICTIONARY OF MUSIC

Author: William Kinderman
Publisher: Oxford
Price: Tk 2250

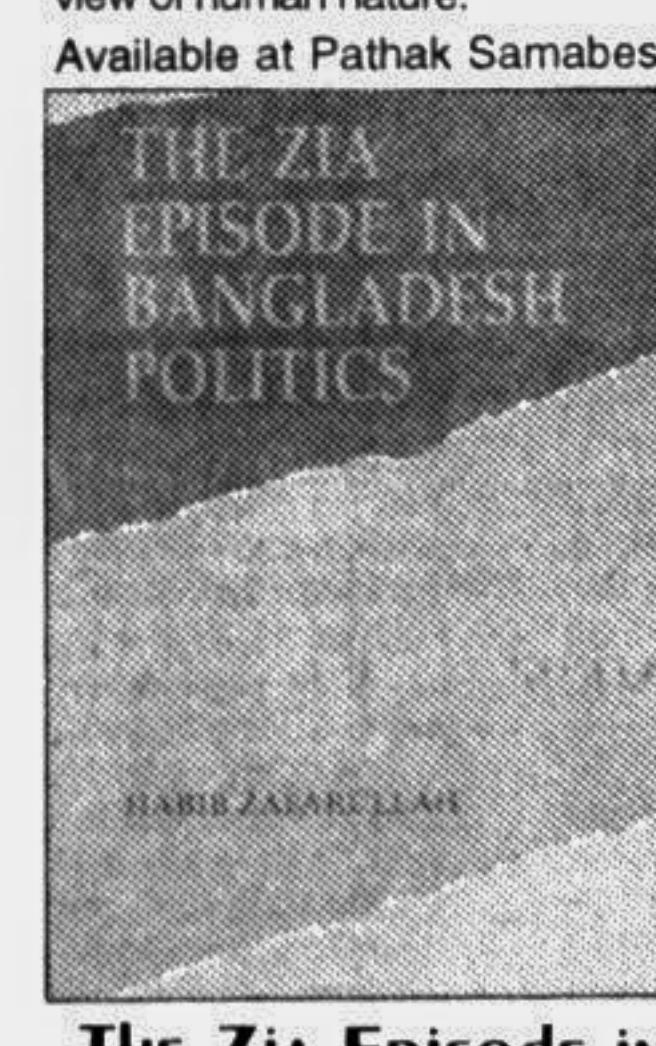

Combining musical insight and the most recent research, William Kinderman's Beethoven is both a richly drawn portrait of the man and a guide to his music. Kinderman traces the composer's intellectual and musical development from the early works written in Bonn to the Ninth Symphony and the late quartets. Throughout, he looks at compositions from different and original perspectives that show Beethoven's art as a union of sensuous and rational, of expression and structure.

Anthology of Hindi Short Stories

Author: Norman Geras
Publisher: Verso
Price: Tk 1027

What are the sources of solidarity? Do universalist motives have an important place amongst them? And how are they related to arguments about human nature and about truth? In this new book, Norman Geras engages with the work of Richard Rorty to explore the paradoxes of a liberalism which rejects any determinate view of human nature.

THE ZIA EPISODE IN BANGLADESH POLITICS

Author: Habib Zafarullah
Publisher: SAP
