Move to infuse far more excellence in work Young professionals, entrepreneurs plan to meet throughout mid-February

By Staff Correspondent

Young professionals and entrepreneurs within the age range of 25 and 35 at a meeting in the city on Saturday decided to organise separate meetings of respective core groups throughout mid-February to infuse far more excellence in their work and prepare themselves for challenges of 21st century.

The meeting, held at British Council auditorium, was a follow up of last month's conference of over 400 young professionals and entrepreneurs convened by The Daily Star.

Some 40 young men and women from a wide range of professions including business executives, entrepreneurs, lawyers, doctors, bankers and public servants attended the 90-minute follow-up meeting yesterday moderated by The Daily Star Editor Mahfuz Anam.

The meeting decided to form an open-ended coordination group taking young representatives from various professions so that the initiative that young people took on December 28, 1997 last, be carried forward through specific programmes.

It was resolved that young lawyers would organise a meeting on February 12, a similar one by young doctors on 13th. A meeting of young business executives will be held on February 15. A meeting of young entrepreneurs would be convened sometime between February 7 and 10.

Besides, meetings of young people belonging to different professions would also be held time to time to facilitate interactions.
