JU journal not published for 5 years

By JU Correspondent

The annual journal of the Social Science Faculty of Jahangirnagar University (JU) has not been published for the last five years, teachers said.

Teachers of the Social Science Faculty have expressed resentment that they could not get promotion as they failed to publish their research articles in absence of the journal.

When contacted, Dean of the Social Science Faculty Prof A K Azizul Haq Bhuiyan said "Academic activities get recognition through journals and cannot be judged and appreciated if journals are not published."

"Research, one of the most important academic businesses of the teachers, is being hampered as the journal is not published," he maintained.

Asked about the delay in publishing the journal, Prof Bhuiyan said "the journal is published by a committee formed by the faculty and the dean has no scope to play role in it."

"I have called a meeting on February 9 to form a new committee to publish the journal immediately," he added.

The chairman of the journal committee who is also the Vice Chancellor of JU, Prof Amrul Islam Chowdhury said "the journal could not be published due to my other commitments, as I have to remain busy with the VC office."

Taposh Barua won the FIAP gold medal in the international photography competition organised by Bangladesh Photo graphic Society (BPS), says a press release.

A total of 235 photographers from 22 countries including United Kingdom, Denmark, Hong Kong, Vietnam, Ukraine, India and host Bangladesh submitted 1002 photographs for competition.

Taposh is a photo journalist of Dainik Azadi of Chittagong. He also achieved several national and international awards.

The prize giving ceremony and an exhibition of the photographs will start at the Drik Gallery in the city on January 22.
