

Pick of the week

The Serial

Heartbeat

Jan 26 at 10:30 pm on Star Plus

In Playing With Fire, one girl says yes, another girl says no: burning desires of all kinds bring problems for Nick and Kate. And the flames of passion become a little too hot to handle when one boy can't. PC Nick Rowan investigates two mysterious barn fires and discovers that the sound of a motorcycle was heard on both occasions. And the only other clue he has to work on is a necklace he finds at the scene of the latest blaze.

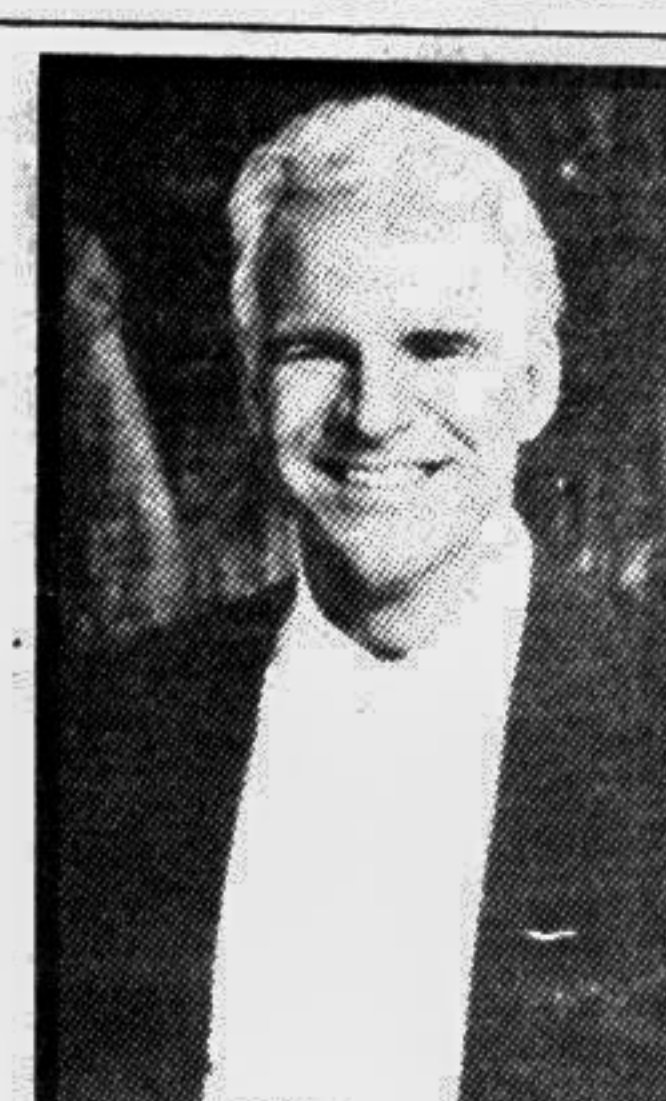

The Musical

Shopping

Tamzid's exclusive Punjabi sale

Finally men have a place to go for their Eid shopping. Tamzid is offering a variety of silk, cotton, velvet panjabis. His products are all unique as far as design, colour and embroidery is concerned. The motifs on his panjabis are all designed by his renowned artist wife Papa. This year his main attraction is his collection of cotton backed velvet angarkhas ornated in zardozi. These are priced at Tk 4000.

Address: House 2, Road 7, Dhanmondi, Tel # 501915.

WEARE A PAINTING

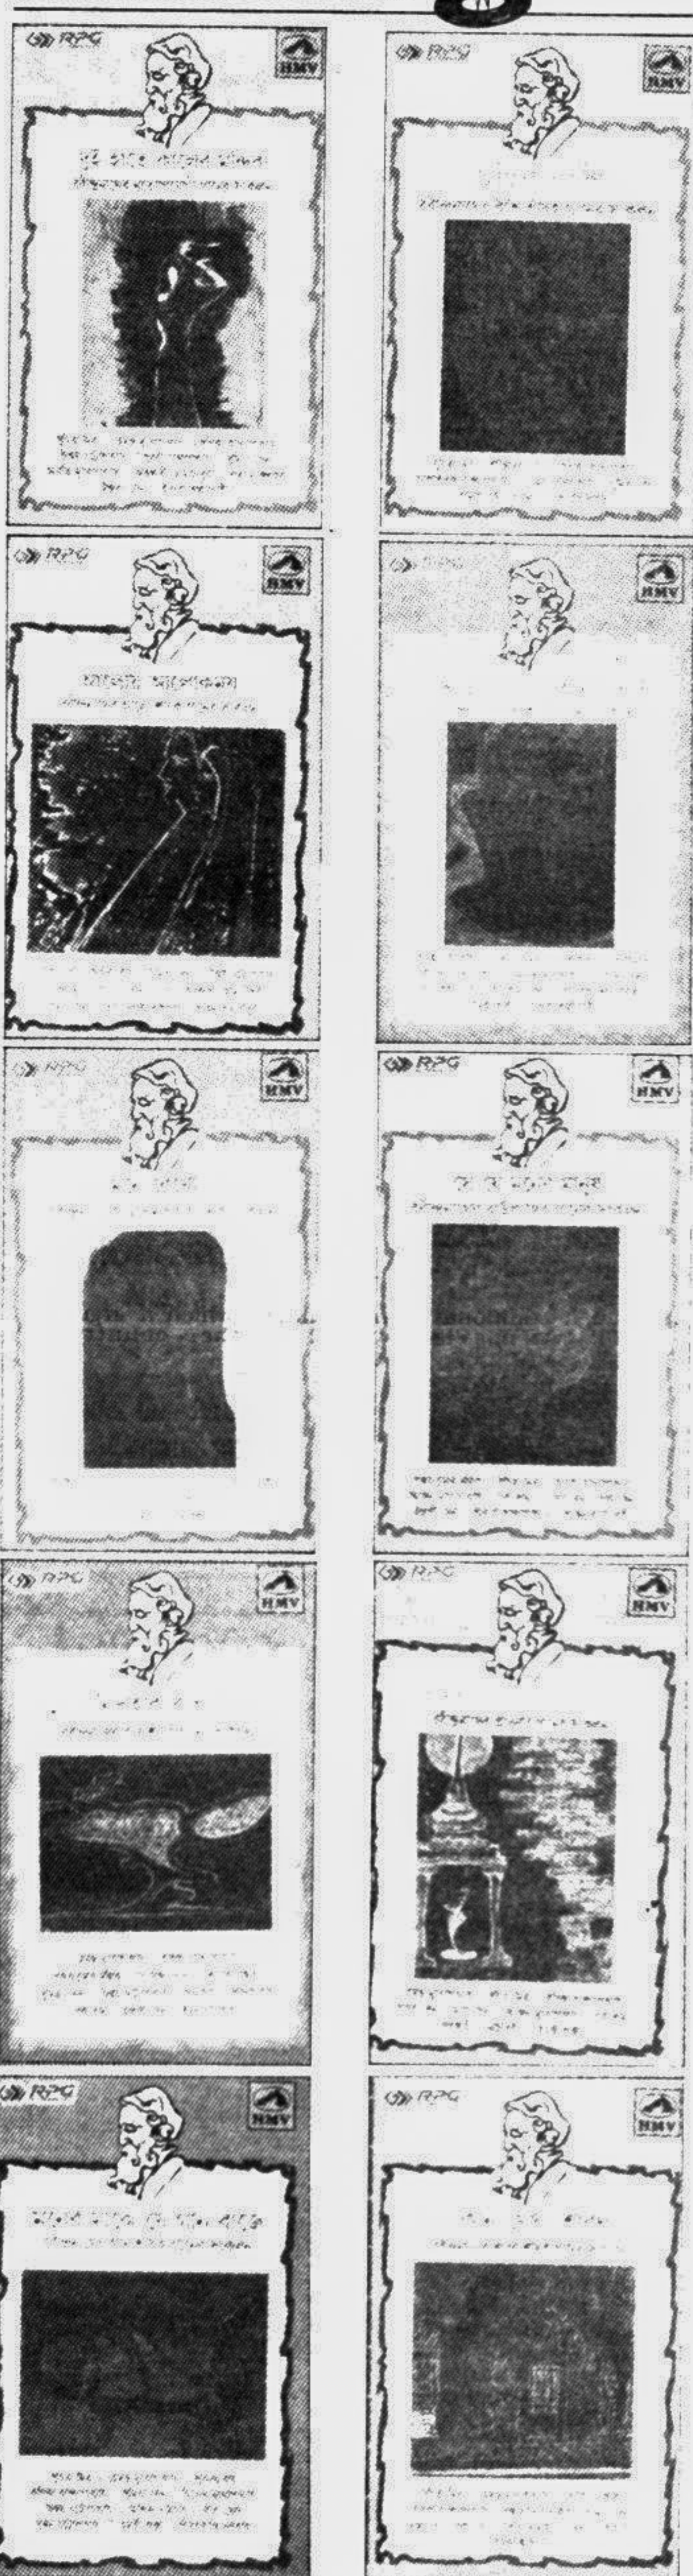

Two gifted young artists — Ismat and Midul — have teamed up to paint wearables, especially shirts. Buy something off beat for this Eid (price ranging from Tk 400 to 1400). The shirt show is on at the Zainul Gallery, Institute of Fine Arts, Shahbagh from 11 am to 8 pm until Jan 25.

PEANUT, HA!

It's a riot of colours. No I'm not describing a painting. As another cold wave going to take us into its grip I'm talking about impressive and brightly coloured sweaters and pullovers available at a price which would seem to you a peanut (Tk 125) at Impressions, House No 222, Lane 15, New DOHS, Ph: 983833.

Cassettes & CDs

Fabulous!

Another set of cassettes of Tagore songs? What's new about it? The latest theme based 'Tagore from HMV' is a novelty and sure to whet the appetite of many a Tagore lover. Each volume features a painting by the myriad minded Tagore. Which is a bonus. The selection, I wouldn't say is above any criticism but is certainly one of the best possible combinations. Together they worth their weight in gold. The set is available at Tk 600 at Dhruvadee, Aziz Super Market, Shahbagh.

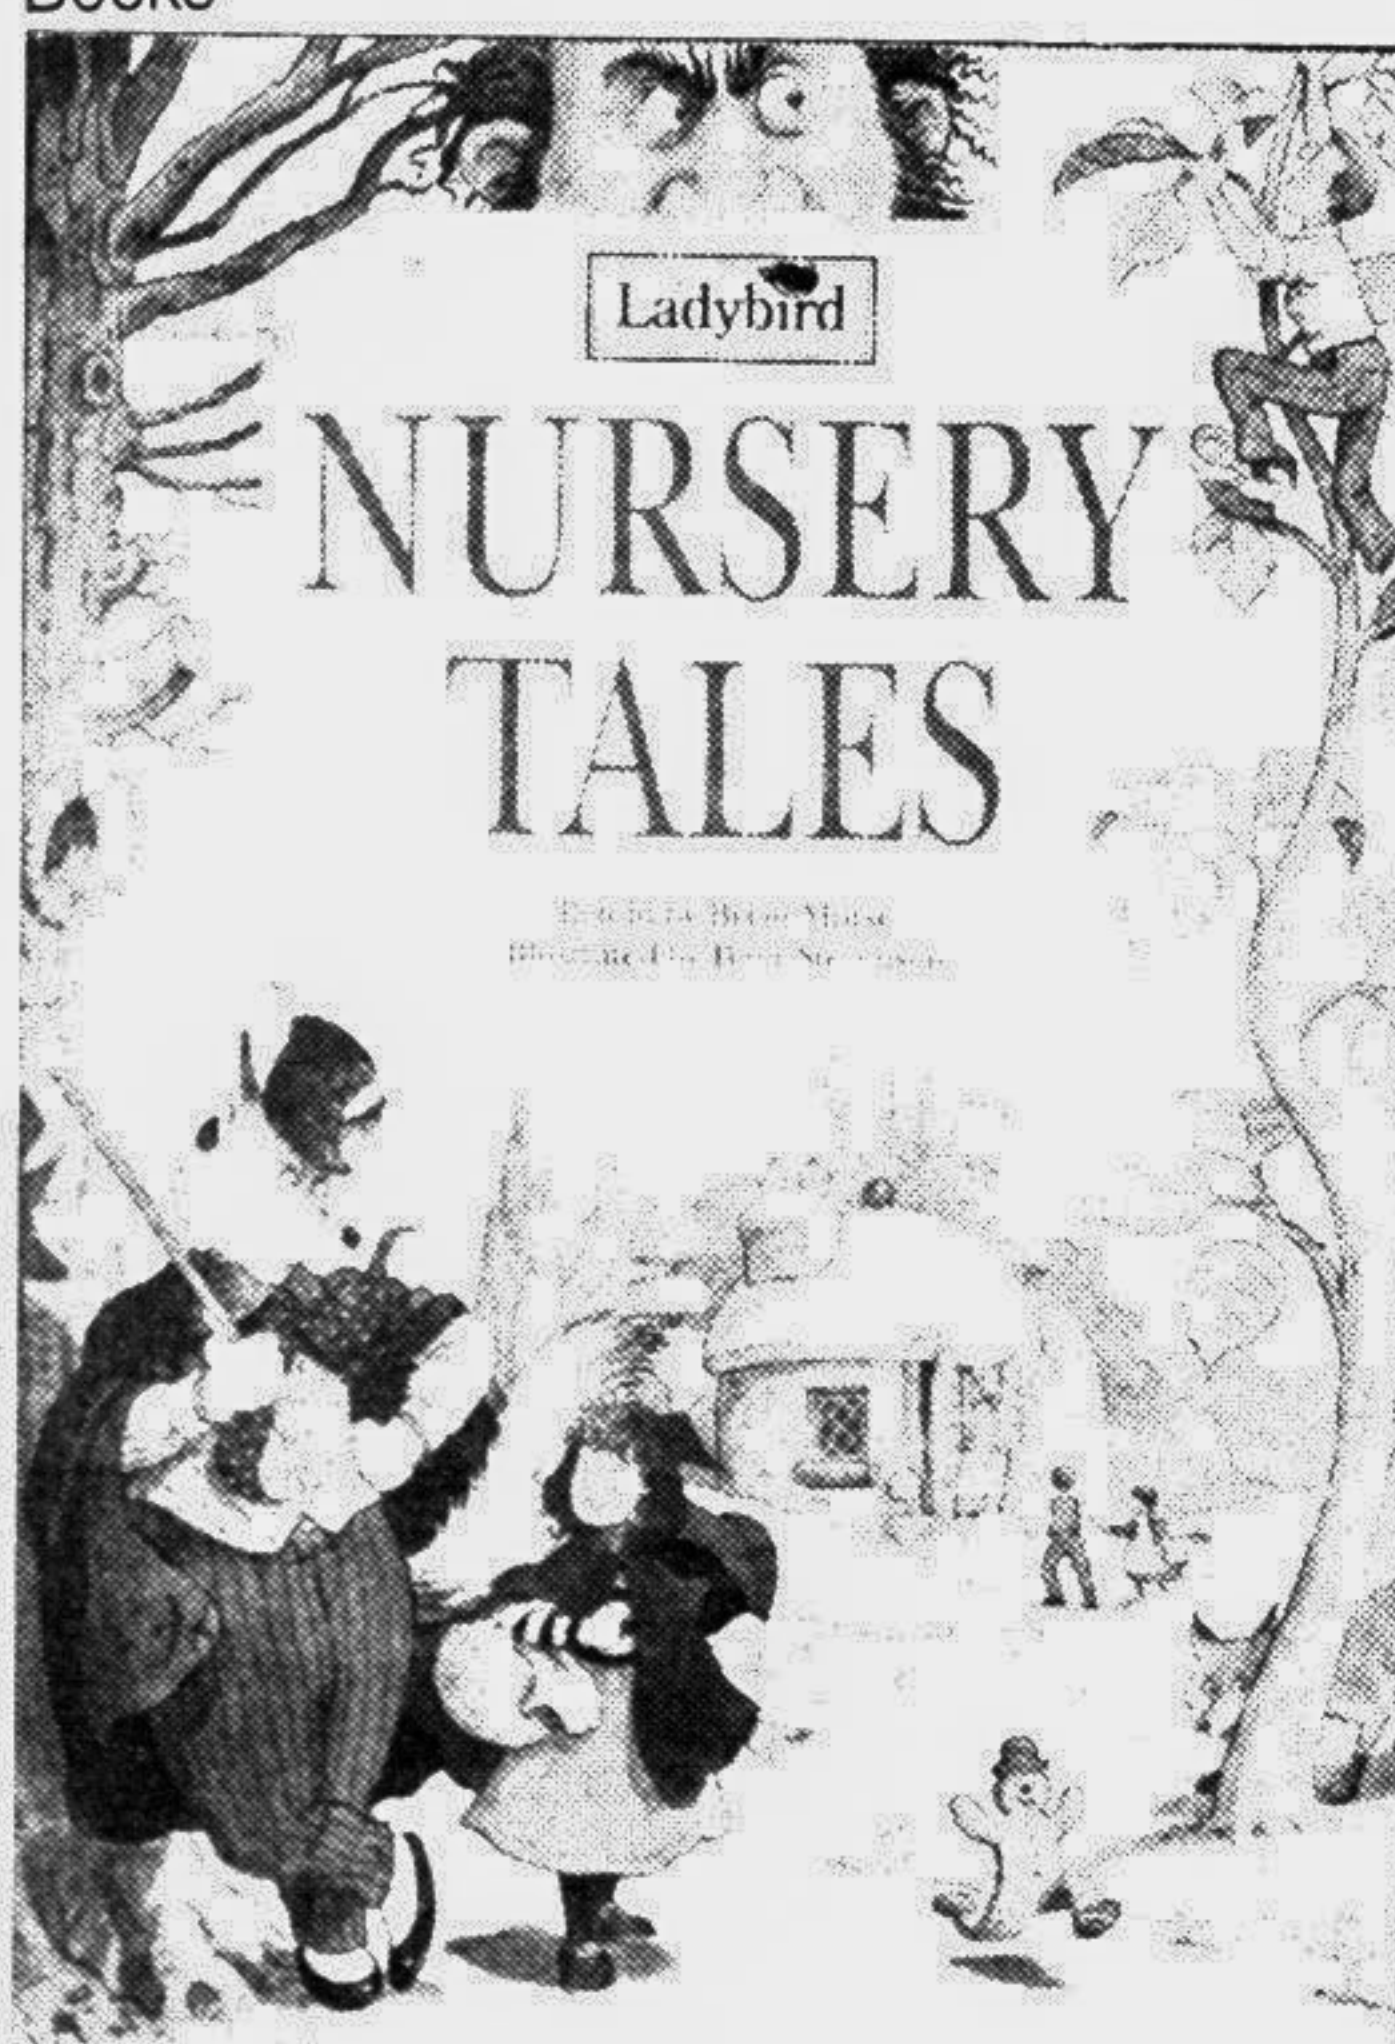

JOHANN S. BACH

Brandenburg Concerto Nos 1-4 CD Price: Tk 500.
