Netaji, Bangabandhu had similar political views: Sayeed

State Minister for Information Prof Abu Sayeed yesterday said the great Bangalee leader Subhash Chandra Bose pioneered the independence struggle of the sub-continent and Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman completed the task through establishing an independent Bangladesh, reports BSS.

The minister said Bangabandhu and Netaji, the two great Bangalee leaders, were committed to freeing their country from the colonialists through struggle. He said that despite some differences between Netaji and Bangabandhu, there were many similarities in their political views and commitment for independence.

He said the indomitable courage of Netaji had highly influenced the Father of the Nation for leading the independence struggle of Bangladesh in 1971.

The minister was speaking as the chief guest at a function marking the birth centenary of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose at Indian Cultural Centre in the morning organised by young theatre workers.

Deb Mukherjee, the High Commissioner of India to Bangladesh was present on the occasion as special guest.

Presided over by Shilpakala Academy Director General Azad Rahman the function was also addressed, among others, by Dr Rajib Humayun, a teacher of Dhaka University, Ramendu Majumder eminent cultural activist, and Jahangir Hossain, Finance Secretary of the group BSS.
