The Movie
Blood and Sand
Feb 18 at 10:00 pm on Star Movies

In this contemporary interpretation of the 1941 classic, Sharon Stone stars as the beautiful Dona Sol, whose seductive charms prove to be the downfall of a young bullfighter. In the role made famous by Tyrone Power, Christopher Rydell stars as Juan Gallardo, a young man who leaves home to find glory in the bullring, only to have his life destroyed by his fatal fascination with the aristocratic Dona Sol.

A CHINESE GHOST STORY
Feb 16 at 12:00 pm on Star Movies

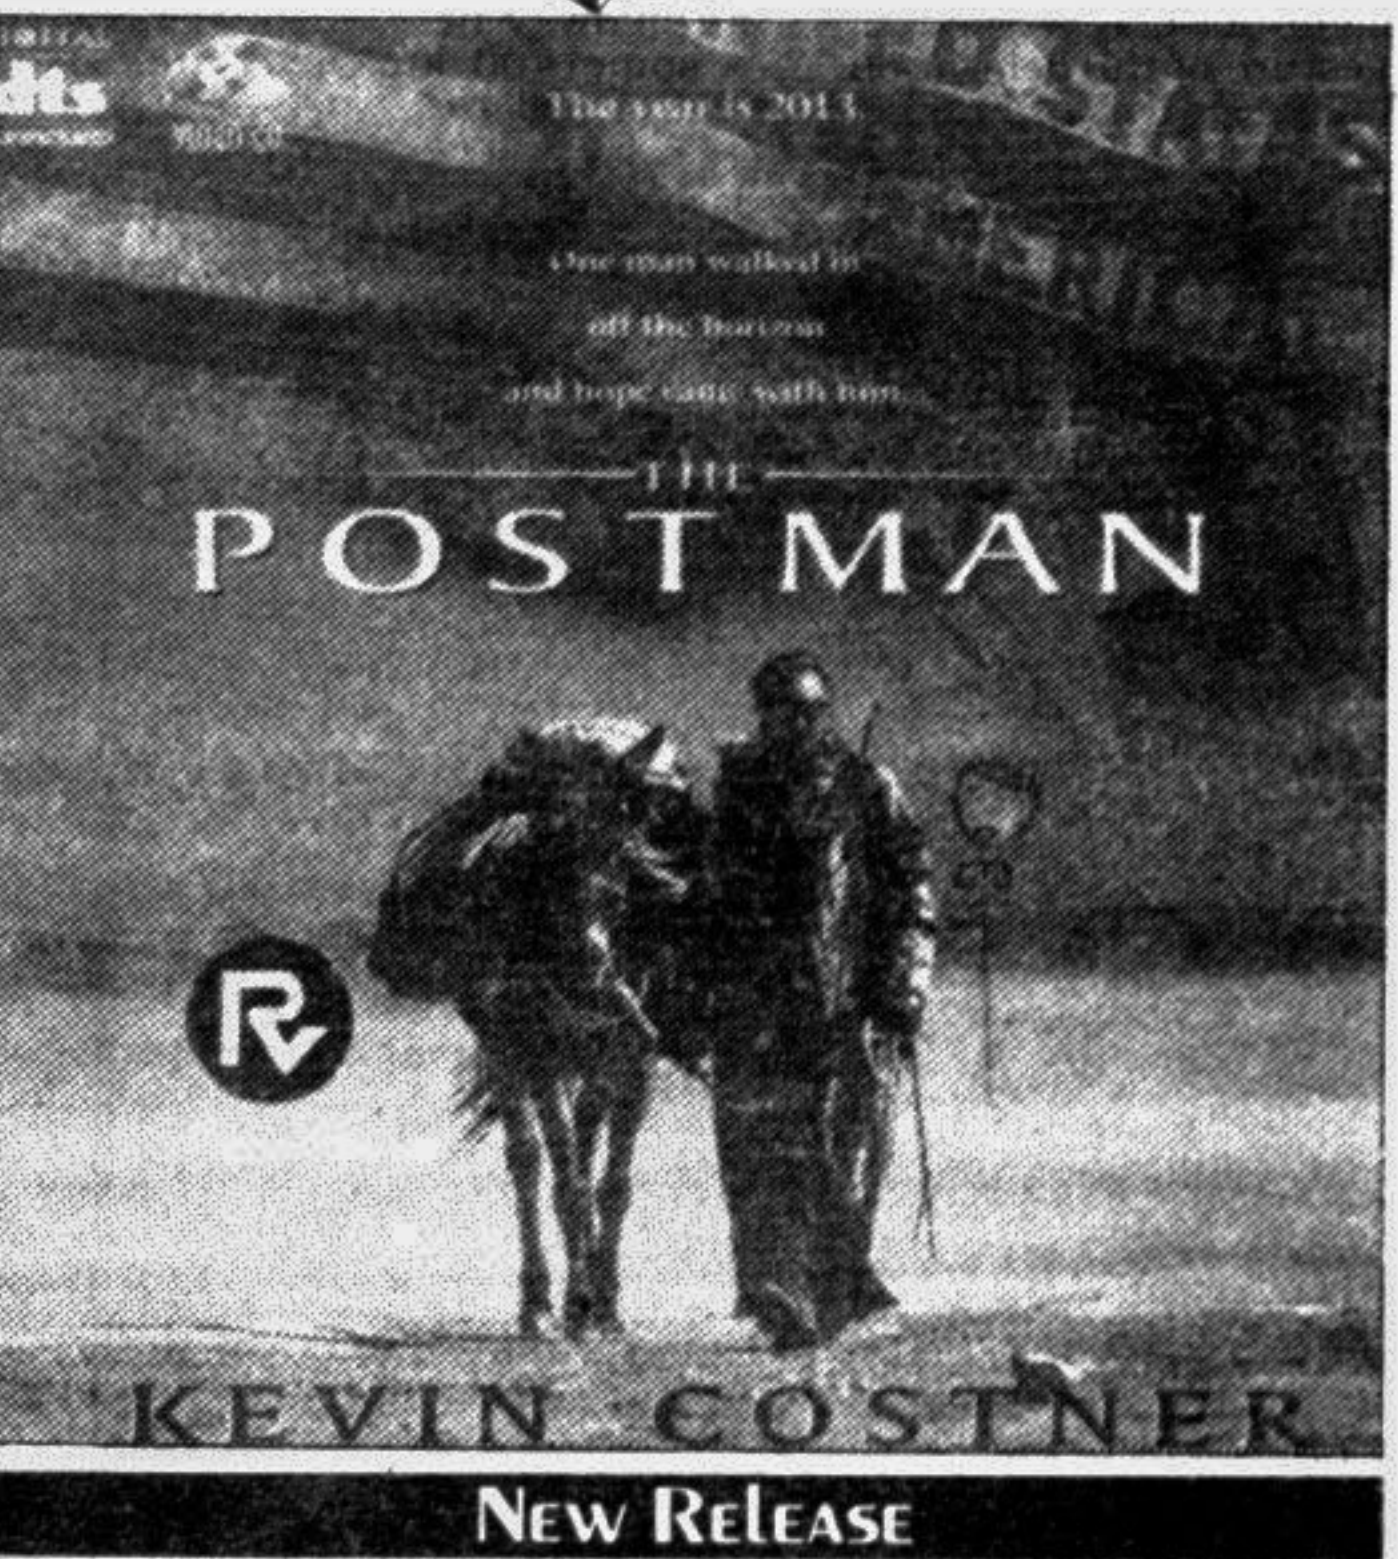

A stylish exercise in the horror genre and an update of the classic plot of the scholar and the ghostly beauty, with a highly charged battery of modern special effects. Pop singing sensation and actor Leslie Cheung plays a scholar who struggles to free a courtesan's soul from an androgynous Evil frothing with deadly tentacles and roots. Using more brawn than brain, he takes the fight to hell where Good triumphs. The film won awards for Best Art Direction, Best Score, Best Film Song and Outstanding Technique at the 7th Hong Kong Film Award.

TITANIC

Feb 19 at 10:00 pm on Star Movies

With James Cameron's (US) $200 million blockbuster Titanic wowing audiences around the world and the premiere set for March 6 in India, it seems appropriate to schedule the 1953 original version. The story centres on the tragic events surrounding the sinking of the "unsinkable" luxury liner, Titanic. Starring Barbara Stanwyck, Clifton Webb, Robert Wagner and Thelma Ritter.
