Seminar on HR held

Water Resources Minister Abdur Razzak has urged all to come forward to strengthen social movement in protecting human rights in the society, reports UNB.

'Peace is the pre-condition for preserving democracy, independence and human rights in the country,' said the minister while addressing a seminar in the city yesterday.

The seminar on 'Human Rights: The perspective of Bangladesh and South Asia' was organised by South Asia Watch, New York.

Referring to the CHT accord, Razzak said the peace deal with the tribal people was a clear demonstration of the government's commitment to peace and upholding human rights.

Razzak said the government under the leadership of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina has been working sincerely to protect fundamental and human rights of the people.

The minister called upon all to contribute in checking repression against women and children.

JU classes resume tomorrow

By JU Correspondent

Classes of the Jahangirnagar University (JU) resume tomorrow after a one month Eidul-Fitr and winter vacation. The classes as well as examinations will be held as per schedule.

Students have already begun to return to their respective halls. As the administrative activity began from Feb 7, few departments have already started their year-end examinations.

Spl darbar of East Bengal Regiment held

CHITTAGONG, Feb 14: Bangladesh Army is observing the golden jubilee of the East Bengal Regiment, reports UNB.

A two-day programme has been organised to mark the occasion including a special darbar (traditional military congregation), which was held at the East Bengal Regimental Centre today.

Chief of Army Staff Lt Gen Muhammad Mustafizur Rahman addressed the serving and retired members of the Regiment at the darbar.

The Army Chief said that East Bengal Regiment was the pivot of our national army. The role of this regiment in safeguarding the territorial integrity of the country was undeniable, essential and unavoidable.

General Mustafiz said that the efficiency, discipline, devotion and loyalty of the members of the regiment were recognised and appreciated not only within the country, but also in the international level.

Earlier, the Chief of Army Staff visited Ajantha Shaheed Samadhi or the graveyard for unknown martyrs. He placed a wreath there in memory of the unknown martyrs of the regiment and prayed for the salvation of their departed souls.

The workshop has been organised by Asia-Pacific Cultural Centre for UNESCO (ACC) and Dhaka Ahsan Mission, with the collaboration of UNESCO, PROAP, Bangkok, UNESCO Dhaka office, Directorate of Non-Formal Education (DNFE), Bangladesh and Bangladesh National Commission for UNESCO (BNCU).
