Ragas:

Shahana & Bageshree

A set of two CDs Price: Tk 1450/-

This recording allows one to hear together two generations of a famous musical family, Ustad Vilayat Khan and his son Shujaat Hussain. Vilayat Khan was born some time between 1924 and 1928 (no one is quite sure), in Gouripur in East Bengal (now Bangladesh), into a family of renowned sitarists. The best known of these are his father Ustad Inayat Khan and grandfather Ustad Imdad Khan, although the family claims a lineage going back several generations earlier. Vilayat Khan's younger brother Ustad Imrat Khan and nephew Ustad Rais Khan are also well known sitarists, as are several members of the next generation.

Live at Shivaji Park - Bombay

Raga - Jog

A set of two CDs Price: Tk 1450/-

This recording brings together three of the great names of modern Indian music: the hugely popular khyal singer Pandit Jasraj; the undisputed master of the bansuri, Hariprasad Chaurasia; and Zakir Hussain, arguably the greatest tabla player of our times. This makes for an unusual combination, since on the one hand the flute is not generally used to accompany the voice in North Indian music, and on the other hand vocalists rarely duet with instrumentalists on an equal basis. The experiment is always absorbing however, and often inspired.

The World of Islam

Edited by Bernard Lewis

Publisher: Thames and Hudson

Price: Tk 1596/-

In spite of its astonishing impact upon the modern world, the civilisation of Islam is still Terra Incognita for many in the West. The thirteen contributors to this volume, all eminent specialists, aim to remedy that situation. Islam itself, and the peoples who accepted it, come first in the story. The central area and period of Islamic greatness — the Middle East and North Africa from the advent of Islam in the seventh century to the aftermath of the Mongol conquests in the thirteenth — produced a culture of extraordinary depth, variety and richness. Art, social life, trade, mysticism, literature, music, science and warfare all developed uniquely Islamic forms; all are fully considered and lavishly illustrated.

ISLAMIC ECONOMIC SYSTEMS

Author: Farhad Nomani & Ali Rahnama

Publisher: Zed Books

Price: Tk 1046/-

This major new study examines the central tenets of Islamic economics, both in theory and in practice. The authors pinpoint the uniqueness of the Islamic approach, both in its conception of the world's resources and in its attitude to human endeavour. Their book illuminates the distinctive nature of an economics which is based neither on meeting the demands of the individual consumer, nor on increasing the level of general welfare, but on maximising the pleasure of God.
