Edmundo tells Fiorentina off

ROME, Feb 19: Brazil striker Edmundo has carried out his threat to walk out on Fiorentina if the Serie A club did not guarantee him a first team place, and flew back to Rio today, reports Reuters.

Fiumicino airport. His agent Pedrinho said Edmundo was happy with Fiorentina owner Vittorio Cecchi Gori and other managers "but he's standing firm on this."

This is a decision he took during the (CONCACAF) Gold Cup and it's motivated only by his great desire to play." Pedrinho said.

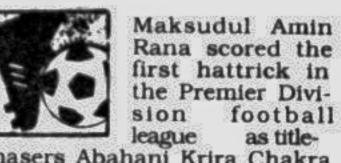

Asked whether Edmundo would change his mind, Pedrinho said: "I don't know. Now we're going to Rio, in peace, and we'll stay in tough with Fiorentina to see how we can resolve the situation."

Edmundo was bought by Fiorentina from Brazilian club Vasco da Gama last May for 7.4 million dollars but only arrived in Italy early in the New Year after completing Brazil's season with Vasco, for whom he scored a record 28 goals but also received seven red cards.

chasers Abahani Krira Chakra romped home with a 5-2 win over Farashganj Sporting in their opening encounter of the Super league at the Mirpur Stadium yesterday.

In a lop-sided affair between the two unequal opponents, Abahani took an unassailable 5-0 lead at the breather with Rana, the fleet-footed striker of the sky-blues, scoring three goals in the space of 26 minutes. While Sahajuddin Tipu netted the other two goals to ensure a big win for Abahani.

For Farashganj, veteran marksman Babu Das pulled two goals back in the second half to save the old town outfit from sheer humiliation.

Rana switched on the goalfest in the 10th minute shooting home from close after being nicely fed by medio Sourav Raju (1-0) while Tipu, latching onto a Zakir low cross from the right. doubled the margin six minutes later with a cool placing shot (2-

Rana then completed his unique treble with two goals in five minutes. He scored his second goal with a neat placing shot from a goal-mouth scramble in the 31st minute before heading home a left side Tipu floater in the 36th minute (4-0).

With the hattrick, Rana leapfrogged Muktijoddha's striker Nakib as the leading scorer with eleven goals. Nakib have scored ten goals so far.

The nimble striker, who was unstoppable down the middle. then fed Tipu for his second goal two minutes from the short whistle to complete the Farashganj bashing (5-0). It was Tipu's eighth goal in the league.

Although, the popular Dhanmondi outfit dominated the first half, the post-lemon session belonged to Farashganj, who made the most of a wayward approach of Abahani to pull off two goals through their forward Babu Das.

He steeped up to convert a penalty in the 54th minute after Abahani's defender Partho handled the ball in the forbidden zone and then shot home a Farhad pass in the 77th minute.

With the win, Abahani raised their points tally to 39

Graf gets going

HANOVER, Germany, Feb 19: Steffi Graf made a successful singles comeback on Wednesday after an eight-month injury layoff, beating fellow German Andrea Glass in the second round of the Hanover Grand Prix tournament, reports Reuters.

Graf, who played her first competitive match in the doubles competition earlier this week, dismissed Glass 6-4, 6-2 in 64 minutes.

The former world number one rarely looked in serious trouble during the match, although she showed frustration at some unforced errors by throwing down her racket at the beginning of the second set.

"I know I can play better." Graf said. "I made more mistakes than I have done in training recently."

Graf goes forward to the quarterfinals where she will meet Belgium's Sabine Appel-mans, who beat Bulgarian Magdalena Maleeva in straight sets. Graf's comeback, in front of 4,000 spectators, followed a string of failed attempts to return to competitive tennis after an operation on tendons in her left knee last June.

"I couldn't train at all for five or six months. There were a lot of question marks about whether I would ever make it,"

Graf, holder of 21 Grand Slam singles titles, suffered a disastrous 1997 on and off the court as she struggled to recover from the operation and her father Peter was jailed for tax evasion.

Now, however, she is convinced she can challenge for major titles again.

"If I didn't have the ambition to get to the top again, this comeback wouldn't have happened," she said.

LONDON, Feb 19 (AP/Reuters): Ruud Gullit, who? Gianluca Vialli's debut as Chelsea's new player-mana

The Blues scored three spectacular goals and were aided by a sending off as they whipped Arsenal 3-1 Wednesday to reach the League Cup final at Wembley Stadium on March 29. Chelsea will face Middles-brough in a replay of last season's FA Cup final won 2-0 by Chelsea. First-Division Middlesbrough shocked Liverpool 2-0 in the day's other second-leg semifinal to go through on a 3-2 aggregate on a goal by Paul Merson on a penalty in the second minute and Marco Branca's a minute later. Despite the early fireworks at Middlesborough, all eyes were still on west London and Chelsea Gullit, fired in a pay dispute last week and replaced by Vialli, promised to watch the match on television from the Netherlands. He must have been impressed as Chelsea advanced on a 4-3 aggregate.

Chelsea, coming off a 2-1 loss in the first-leg semifinal, wasted little time. Mark Hughes made it 1-0 after just 10 minutes as he took a pass near the 18-yard (metre) line from Roberto di Matteo, swiveled and scored low into the right corner. Vialli - who started himself
