

British parliamentary group says

Peace in CHT will help create environment for investment

Leader of a British parliamentary group has expressed the hope that the return of peace and stability in the Chittagong Hill Tracts would help create an environment for the inflow of investment in Bangladesh, reports BSS.

Ms Oona King MP, vice chair of the British parliamentary group on Bangladesh speaking at a meeting of the group in London on Thursday stressed the necessity of political stability to spur investment in Bangladesh. She noted with satisfaction the meaningful steps taken towards building a stable socio-political order in the country by the government of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina, a message received in the city yesterday from London said.

High Commissioner to Britain A H Mahmood Ali and Sheikh Rehana, youngest daughter of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman. Other members of the parliamentary group while echoing the sentiments expressed by Ms King, made special note of the fact that the last month's trilateral summit of the prime ministers of Bangladesh, India and Pakistan would contribute to the growth of confidence in South Asia, the message said.

State Minister for Information Professor Abu Sayeed launched a book containing rare speeches and statements of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman by Ramendu Majumder and another novel titled Samagra 1 by Syed Shamsul Huq at the Muktijuddho Jadughar Auditorium yesterday. Professor Kabir Chowdhuri, Dr Mostafa Nurul Islam, Abed Khan, Ramendu Majumder and publisher Mazharul Huq seen beside him.
