WB to provide $280m for road network

By Naimul Haq
The World Bank will provide 280 million US dollars, the highest amount under a single package, to develop the country's road network.
"This is a very positive sign," Communications Minister Anwar Hossain Manju told The Daily Star last night.
A five-member team led by Rezaul Hyat, Secretary of Communications Ministry, has just returned home from the World Bank headquarters in Washington signing the loan agreement.
The team also confirmed a 50 million dollar grant from Britain also for development of road network in the country.
According to sources in the Communications Ministry, the loan money would be used to develop the 250-km Dhaka-Sylhet highway, to rehabilitate 500-km long national highway.

Clinton warns Baghdad

US to act unilaterally if accord is violated

WASHINGTON, Feb 24: President Bill Clinton gave his qualified approval to a UN-Iraq accord on weapons inspections Monday, warning that the United States would act unilaterally if Baghdad violated it, reports AFP.

US military forces will remain in the Gulf until Washington is satisfied Iraqi President Saddam Hussein will open weapons sites to UN inspections.

"Our soldiers, our ships, our planes will stay there in force until we are satisfied that ... Iraq is complying," Clinton said, warning of "grave consequences" if Baghdad violated the agreement.

"If he does not keep his word this time, everyone would understand that the United States ... would have the unilateral right to respond at a time, place and manner of our own choosing," he said.

The United States had threatened military strikes if Iraq persisted in refusing to open its 'presidential sites' to UN inspectors as required by agreements signed ending the 1991 Gulf War. Iraq is barred from having nuclear, biological and chemical weapons and long-range ballistic missiles.

Despite the agreement, US forces continued moving to the Gulf, where there are about 6,500 US ground troops.

Britain, the strongest US ally in backing a possible attack, also opted to retain its military force in the Gulf for now, British Defence Secretary George Robertson said.

The agreement signed by UN Secretary General Kofi Annan and Iraqi Deputy Prime Minister Tarek Aziz was reached after Annan held a two-hour private meeting with Saddam, and was to be given to the UN Security Council today.

The two-page memorandum of understanding cites the need to respect Iraqi sovereignty, dignity and national security, which is expected to lead to less heavy-handed methods by UN weapons inspectors.

The accord spells out the guidelines for inspecting the presidential sites in one paragraph. The inspectors would be accompanied by diplomats, sources said, and it discusses a critical issue for Iraq — lifting economic sanctions imposed after the 1990 invasion of Kuwait.

Promotion of 154 officers evokes sharp reaction

By Special Correspondent
Promotion of 154 officers, mainly from the administrative cadres, have evoked sharp reaction from members of the other cadres, particularly from the BCS-Prokrichi Coordination Committee, grouping engineers, doctors and agriculturists.
The promotion of 154 officers, out of 250 recommended by the Superior Selection Board (SSB), on Monday, led to an emergency meeting of the BCS-Prokrichi Coordination Committee which expressed its deep resentment.
It also drew flaks from cadres of former Central Superior Services of Pakistan.
The newly promoted are one secretary, 30 joint-secretaries and 124 other officers.

Partnership with Tullow in Block-9 US, Malaysian cos asked to take decision by March 7

Star Report

The negotiation committee for the second round oil and gas block bidding has asked US joint venture Chevron-Texaco to come up with a decision regarding partnership with Irish company Tullow in block 9 by the first week of March.

The committee also asked Malaysian company Petronas and its partner US giant Mobil late last week to decide on partnership with the same Irish company in block 11 at the same time.

In both these moves, the government has favoured the Irish company by suggesting Chevron-Texaco and Mobil-Petronas that Tullow should get 45 per cent equity in each of the two blocks. At the same time, Chevron-Texaco would split another 45 per cent in block 9 and Mobil-Petronas 45 per cent in block 11, leaving a petty 10 per cent for Bangladeshi explorer BAPEX in each of the blocks.

Both Chevron-Texaco and Mobil-Petronas representatives were initially asked to discuss the 'suggestions' of the government with Tullow Chief Aidan Heavey and decide on partnership by this week. However, this time frame was extended up to the first week of March as the convenor of the negotiation team went to Japan yesterday on a week-long official visit.
Sources said that while chances of partnership between Chevron-Texaco and Tullow were brighter, the position not so clear about Mobil-Petronas-Tullow partnership.

Chevron-Texaco has been competing for block 9 only, the most prospective block in Bangladesh, while Mobil-Petronas has been bidding for both block 9 and 11 along with BAPEX.

Although mobil-petronas was the first big joint venture to agree to talk about partnership with Tullow in block 9 and 11 in mid-December, it was side tracked when Chevron-Texaco expressed its interest in partnership with Tullow in block 9.

464 ampoules of illegal pethidine seized from a drug company

By Staff Correspondent

Drug Administration officials yesterday raided the factory of a reputed pharmaceutical company in Tejgaon industrial area and seized a large quantity of pethidine ampoules produced without licence.

Acting on a tip-off, two officials of the Drug Administration raided the factory and seized 244 ampoules of pethidine hydrochloride with labels and another 220 without labels. The drug is prescribed for sedation and pain-killing.

The factory was closed for the last five months.
One of the officials talking to The Daily Star at the factory said, "When we entered the factory premises at about 1 pm, we

Govt trying its best for Opposition's return to JS: PM

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday said the government is trying its best to bring back the opposition to parliament for ensuring a stable political situation and making parliament effective, reports UNB.

"We are repeatedly seeking their cooperation to make parliament effective and offering them every scope to discuss any issue they like inside the House," the Prime Minister told the editors of national dailies and news agencies at her office.

Refuting the allegations of the Opposition, the Prime Minister said they were allowed to raise any issue in the House. The House discussed the issue of terrorism even twice.

"We have accepted their demands they raised at different times, we have made the parliamentary committees according to their demand. Despite that they did not return to the House," she said.

Responding to queries on the economic situation of the country, the Prime Minister said the government is trying to maintain economic stability.

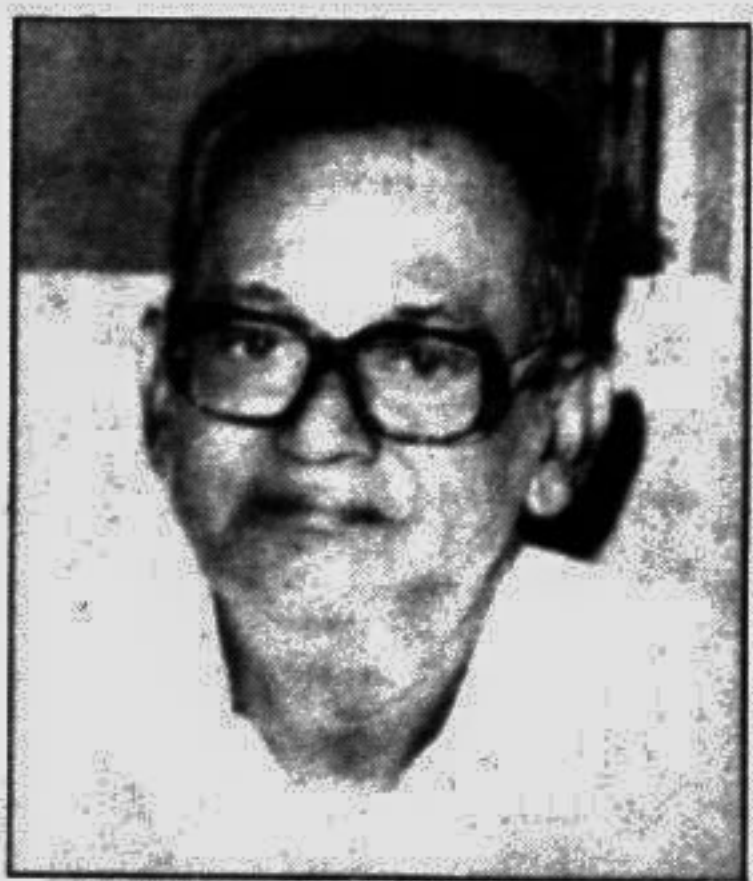

About the rice price, Hasina said the government has taken all possible steps to arrest the upward trend. Arrangements have been made to import rice by the government and private traders as well.

Bangabandhu Murder Case

Move to bring back all absconding accused

The government is making all-out efforts to bring back all the absconding and other accused in the Bangabandhu Murder Case.

A Foreign Ministry official told BSS yesterday that an American attorney had been engaged to pursue the case of Lt. Col (retd) Mohiuddin Ahmed, an alleged killer of August 15, 1975.

Mohiuddin, who served as a diplomat during the successive governments of Ziaur Rahman, H M Ershad and Begum Khaleda Zia, is now in police custody in the United States, Bangladesh, seeking his extradition, has submitted necessary papers sought by the US government. A representative of the government has already met officials concerned of the State Department who assured him of considering the Bangladesh's request, official said.

Twenty-four persons were originally charged in the August 15 killings. Four persons including Khandakar Mustaque Ahmed and Mahbubul Alam Chasi are no more alive. Zubaida Rashid, wife of absconding accused Lt. Col (retd) Khandakar Abdur Rashid, has been relieved of the charges following a court order.

Out of the 19 accused five are in custody. Only a handful could be tracked in different

Dispute over sacking of UP govt SC orders holding of 'composite floor test'

From Pallab Bhattacharya

NEW DELHI, Feb 24: India's Supreme Court today ordered the holding of a "composite floor test" at a specially-convened session of the Uttar Pradesh Assembly on February 26 to decide whether BJP leader Kalyan Singh or his former cabinet colleague Jagadambika Pal commanded majority in the Assembly.

The only agenda for the special session will be to have a composite floor test between the contending parties in order to see which of the two claimants for Chief Ministership has a majority in the House, a three-member bench of the apex court headed by Chief Justice MM

Punchich said in a brief order. The bench declined to stay the Allahabad High Court order reinstating the BJP-led government headed by Kalyan Singh in Uttar Pradesh. The Apex Court order today came after hearing on Jagadambika Pal's Special Leave Petition against the Allahabad High Court order yesterday.

The Supreme Court bench observed that the court had decided on the present course of action to "resolve the riddle and put democracy back on its rails." It warned that "serious consequences" would follow in the event of breach of peace or

Delayed meeting of DCC coordination body today

By Morshed Ali Khan

The Dhaka city coordination committee will hold its ninth meeting today more than three months after it was due to be held, sources in Dhaka City Corporation (DCC) said.

The last meeting of the committee was held on December 12 last year and the following one was due in a month's time in January. The coordination meeting is attended by top representatives of city's public utility services to resolve various city problems.
Today's meeting will be held at the LGED ministry with LGED Minister Zillur Rahman in the chair. Mayor Mohammad Hanif, the co-chairperson of the committee, is also expected to attend the meeting. Beside representatives of all the city's utility services, several MPs elected from the city's eight constituencies might attend the meeting.

Sources concerned said that one of the first agenda of the meeting would be why more than 90 per cent of the decisions concerning the city made in earlier meetings still remained
