Pat, Fanie to be disciplined

PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa, Mar 6: South African cricketers Pat Symcox and Fanie de Villiers face disciplinary action over alleged racist remarks made to spectators during the second Test against Pakistan in Durban last weekend, reports AFP.

Ali Bacher, managing director of the United Cricket Board of South Africa, said the players, together with Paddy Upton. the team's exercise specialist, would appear before a disciplinary committee after the end of the third Test which started in Port Elizabeth today.

He said the action had been instituted to "prevent misconceptions that the UCB is sweeping issues under the carpet."

After an initial report that Symcox had made racial remarks after being taunted by Indian spectators during the Durban Test, Dr Bacher met with the South African team to emphasise their responsibility towards members of the public.

He said the formal action followed a meeting with UCB president Krish Mackerdhuj and vice-president Ray White at Centurion on Wednesday night.

Dr Bacher said the committee would be headed by Ronnie Pillay, a high court judge and a member of the UCB executive.

oppressive heat and humidity to finish with 2 for 69 from 28 overs, helping Australia seize the early advantage on the dry wicket that is expected to turn later in the match. India were saved further embarrassment by Rahul Dravid wicketkeeper lan Healy took the edge over his head. Sidhu fell in the next over as he stepped out to play a defensive stroke off Warne, but failed to regain his crease before Mark Waugh broke the stumps from silly point. Tendulkar's dismissal soon after made India 130 for three, but Rahul Dravid and skipper Mohammad Azharuddin retrieved the home team by adding 56 for the fourth wicket. Azharuddin, who made 26, became Warne's second victim when he cut a leg-spinner straight to Paul Reiffel at back-
