Govt move to take action against Janatar Dak: HC issues stay order

The High Court on Sunday issued a stay order on a government move to take action against the publication of Weekly Janatar Dak, reports UNB.

Issuing a rule on the Home Secretary, the Information Secretary, DC of Dhaka and others, the court directed the concerned authorities to explain within seven days as to why the government action would not be declared illegal.

In his petition Ripon mentioned that the government order was in violation of the Constitution. The law to siege publication under Special Powers Act has been repealed in 1991.

The court comprising Justice Mahmudur Rahman and Justice Zakir Hossain passed the order following a writ petition filed by Asaduzzaman Ripon, Editor of the weekly.

Barrister Moudud Ahmed moved the writ on behalf of the petitioner.
