HAT ESPN is a United States television sports cable network, with headquarters in Bristol. Connecticut. The network broadcast 24 hours a day beginning in 1980, and by 1995 it had reached more than 64 million American households throughout the United States. Selected ESPN programming is also available in more than 120 countries worldwide. The network shows a broad range of sporting events, news, and analysis and airs narrow-interest sports as well as those with a broad spectator base.

ESPN is a subsidiary of Capital Cities/ABC, with the Hearst Corporation owning a 20 per cent share of the network. In early 1984, ABC Video Enterprises acquired 15 per cent of ESPN from Getty Oil Company, which had owned the network since 1979, and then purchased the remaining 85 per cent from Texaco, which had taken over Getty Oil. In October 1984, 20 per cent of ESPN was sold to Nabisco Brands, which later merged with RJ Reynolds, a share acquired by the Hearst Corporation in 1990.

Goes to show that there's a lot of money changing hands even in sports broadcasting.

Sachin's sizzling ton

MADRAS, Mar 9 (AP/Reuters): An awesome 155 not out by Sachin Tendulkar boosted India to declare their second innings at 418 for four Monday and Australia tottered at 31 for three in reply at stumps on the fourth day of their first Test in this southern Indian city.

The declaration left the visitors a difficult target of 348 for Tendulkar's blistering attack contained four sixes and 10 fours off 127 deliveries from seven Australian bowlers whom skipper Mark Taylor tried to contain the onslaught. India's skipper Mohammad Azharuddin described Tendulkar's performance as brilliant. "Most of his 100s are brilliant," he said. It is Tendulkar's 15th hundred in Test cricket. Tendulkar was involved in two hundred-run plus partnerships, one - the first with Rahul Dravid that yielded 113 and later with Azharuddin that was worth 127.

Azharuddin did more than just hold on to the crease while Tendulkar hit to all sides of the field. Azhar's 64 contained eight fours and one overboundary.

Australia scored 328 in their first innings, giving them a 71run lead after the home team made 257 in the first innings. If Tendulkar was the star of the batting, leg-spinner Anil Kumble shone with the ball.

WELLINGTON, Mar 9: Zimbabwe would never be a force in world cricket until the players were able toughen up mentally, coach David Houghton admitted Monday, reports AP.

Zimbabwe finished their tour of New Zealand on Sunday having lost both Tests and four of five limited-over matches. They failed to win a match on a month-long tour of Sri Lanka en route.

Houghton, a former Test player, said his players had not been prepared for the rigors of such a long time away from home.

"I think mentally we are not strong enough," Houghton said. "If you want something to test your mental toughness go on a cricket tour for two and a half months and don't win too often. "We did that and to the guys' credit they kept plugging on but the cold hard facts are it has not been a good tour." He said that while the players were professional they still needed plenty of improvement. "Our lads are very inexperienced at tours of this length and it is something we will have to think over," Houghton said. "In future we will have to look at splitting them up." Zimbabwe leave New Zea-Pakistan in a one-day international at Bulawayo.

SEOUL, Mar 9: FIFA, soccer's world governing body, has renewed a proposal that North Korea join in the 2002 World Cup, whose co-hosts are rivals South Korea and Japan, reports

In a March 3 letter addressed to North Korean leader Kim Jong II FIFA President Joao Havelange also renewed an earlier proposal that Kim attend the opening ceremony of this year's World Cup finals in France on June 10.

"It would be desirable to have a selection (team) formed by the two Koreas to be presented to the world as a demonstration of sportive unity at the World Cup 2002." Havelange said.

"If this were possible, I am sure that football would once again show the world the importance of human values and an example would be set which could be followed," he said.

South Korean soccer officials said the FIFA chief renewed the proposals after his first letter, mailed in November, was not answered by the North Korean leader.

the story read "Test bowler Fanie de Villiers quit first class cricket yesterday as a storm over alleged racism in the sport continued to grow.

"His surprise retirement came the day after he was summoned to appear before a disciplinary committee following alleged offensive remarks to spectators during the Test match in Durban last weekend." The report went on to detail how Cronje 'snubbed' young Indian and coloured autograph hunters after South Africa's second Test defeat in Durban a claim vigorously denied by the player.

The report also said that the South African players were subjected to racial abuse from local Asians supporting the Pakistani team which beat an allwhite South African team.

The paper also said that a handful of demonstrators in Port Elizabeth had complained — in the form of a 1,000-signature petition — about the lack of black representation at national and provincial level.
