The Indians were on the road to victory after they dismissed the Waugh brothers, Mark and Steve, rather cheaply in the first session.

The Australians put up a semblance of a fightback after lunch-break when Ian Healy. who had played a defiant knock of 90 runs in the first innings, and Shane Warne together added 57 runs for the eighth wicket.

Australia began the last day's play needing 317 runs in 90 overs with seven wickets in hand. But they were soon in trouble with Kumble claiming the prized wicket of Mark Waugh who was caught at forward short leg by Rahul Dravid.

Waugh scored 18. He wasn't too happy about the umpire's bat-and-pad decision and pondered for a while before walking back to the pavilion.

"I don't think umpiring can decide the fate of a match," Australian captain Mark Taylor told reporters after the match. He blamed his team's failure to capitalise on the 71run first innings lead as the main reason for Australia's de-

PORT ELIZABETH, Mar 10: Pakistan said today Akhtar Sarfraz and Shahid Afridi would join the squad for the Zimbabwe leg of their Southern Africa tour and two other players would be sent home, reports Reuters.

Speaking after the third Test against South Africa, captain Rashid Latif said the two new players would join the tour in Zimbabwe where the first Test starts in Bulawayo on March

"We have not decided who will be sent home yet. But the two new players will join us in Zimbabwe and stay with the party when we return to South Africa for the one-day series (with South Africa and Sri Lanka)."

Pakistan will play two Tests and two one-day internationals against Zimbabwe before returning to South Africa on March 30.

Mongia punished

MADRAS, India, Mar 10: Indian wicketkeeper Nayan Mongia was today fined 50 per cent of his match fees for showing dissent during the first Test against Australia here, reports

Match referee Peter Van Den Merwe of South Africa said Mongia was booked for showing his bat to the umpire after being given leg-before off Greg Blewett on Sunday.

"There will also be a onematch suspended sentence for the player," Merwe said. "Mongia will be banned for one match in case he shows dissent in future.

Merwe, however, did not take any action against Australian batsman Ricky Ponting who stood his ground and left the wicket cursing after being declared caught by Mongia off Venkatapathy Raju on Satur-

We have taken everything into consideration," Merwe said. "There is a difference between dissent and disappointment."

The Indian team management refused to comment on the match referee's action.

Mongia will lose about 500 dollars, but the selectors are unlikely to drop him for the second Test against Australia which starts in Calcutta on March 18.

Graf, Hingis

INDIAN WELLS, California, Mar 10 (AP/Reuters): Steffi Graf is back.

Playing in just her second tournament and fourth match since undergoing knee surgery eight months ago, the 28-yearold Graf was in top form Monday as she demolished Japan's Ai Sugiyama 6-0, 6-1 to advance to the quarterfinals of the 1.25 million dollars State Farm Ev-

Earlier, top-seeded Martina Hingis also won, defeating Meike Babel of Germany 6-2, 6-0, first-round match in the Newsweek Champions Cup which is running concurrently at the Hyatt Grand Champions

Resort. Graf looked like her champion self against Sugiyama, taking only 43 minutes to wrap up the third-round victory. The big forehand that made her No 1 in the world for a record 374 weeks was once again finding the far lines and corners. And she moved on the court as she did before the surgery.

"I didn't really think I would go out and play like that tonight. Felt great," Graf said. "I was going for my shots. Played very deep, pretty hard. Feltpretty good. I needed to find out if I'm capable and the knee is capable to take it.

Graf earned a quarterfinal meeting with 15th seed Natasha Zvereva of Belarus, who upset sixth-seeded Romanian Irina Spirlea 6-3, 7-5.

Unseeded American Sandra Cacic also reached the quarterfinals by toppling ninth seed Sandrine Testud of France 4-6. 7-6, 7-6, taking both tie breaks

Hingis will next face the winner of Tuesday's match between Russian teenager Anna Kournikova and fifth-seeded Spaniard Conchita Martinez.

Pakistan captain Rashid Latif pointed to the devastating fast bowling of Donald as the key factor.

"When he reduced us to 20 for four in the first innings we never recovered. He was the difference. He is a very fine bowler," Latif said. "When the second day was washed out I think we relaxed because we thought the game would be a draw. Then Donald hit us on the third morning and we never recovered," Latif admitted. "It was very important for us to come back after Durban." Cronje said.

"The United Cricket Board Executive president Krish Mackerdhuj, managing director Ali Bacher and selection convenor Peter Pollock spoke to us after that match and emphasised the importance of winning here," Cronje told a news conference. "Allan certainly made the difference with his four-wicket burst - it was inspired, aggressive and very fast," Cronje said

The third goalkeeper will only be allowed to come to France in case of an injury to one of the other goalies, and would not be allowed to join the team to compensate for a red card or any other form of suspension, said Michel D'Hooghe, head of FIFA's medical commit-

"Now goalkeepers easily take a red card," said D'Hooghe, because they are ever more involved in the run of play after the handling of a backpass was abolished and because referees are increasingly strict in applying disciplinary rules.

If a World Cup team went for the two-goalkeeper strategy, it would allow a nation to select one extra field player but leave itself exposed with no goalkeeper on the bench in case of a suspension.

"It would be idiotic to do so. It would be the work of a suicide pilot," said Belgian coach Georges Leekens at a two-day World Cup workshop for the 32 participating nations. The issue of adding more players to the 22-strong roster was highlighted during the 1996 European Championships, when Germany was hit with so many injuries that they feared they would not be able to field a balanced team for the final against the Czech Republic.

In an exceptional concession, the UEFA European soccer federation allowed Germany to bring in an extra midfielder. The move was much criticised but Germany did not need the fresh recruit during the final, which they won 2-1.

Any request to bring in the third goalkeeper during the June 10-July 12 tournament will have to be submitted to the medical and organising committee of the World Cup, which will make a final ruling.

Other issues addressed at

- The full team rosters of 22 players will have to be submitted to FIFA by June 2, with possibilities for injury-related changes lasting up to June 10, the day of the opening game.

- French security officials warned hooligans that creating problems at the World Cup will come at a heavy cost. If convicted, prison sentences can last as long as three years, and fines can go as high as 100,000

- FIFA is working on additional criteria to make the flip · of a coin in the case of a firstround tie a near-impossibility.

The top two teams of the eight four-nation groups advance to the second round. which has direct elimination.

The first round is decided along the following criteria points, goal difference, number of goals and the result of the direct confrontation. FIFA is working on a system to add more criteria and will report to the qualifying nations within the coming weeks, officials — For the first time, the World Cup will use the Golden Goal rule, the system which was first introduced during the 1996 European Championships.
