Diego fined for his old sin

BUENOS AIRES, Mar 11: An Argentine judge fined Diego Maradona 30,000 dollars on Tuesday for yelling insults at a referee in 1994, reports Reuters. Maradona, then coach of struggling First Division side

Mandiyu, rushed onto the pitch to abuse Angel Sanchez after his team lost 2-1 to Independi-

In a post-match news conference, a furious Maradona referred to Sanchez as "the Mafioso.

Judge Carlos Frontera told the state-run Team news agency: "The defendant used injurious terms, not only immediately after the end of the match, but also in his declarations to the press afterwards."

Sanchez had sued for 120,000 dollars but the judge ruled the referee had suffered only emotional and not professional damage from Maradon-a's attacks. The former midfielder's disastrous stint at unfashionable and since dissolved ---Mandiyu came soon after a temporary ban from international soccer. This was imposed after he tested positive for a banned stimulant following Argentina's first-round victory over Nigeria in the 1994 World Cup finals.

11: The Australian cricket team faced one of their most formidable challenges to save the Test series in India, national chairman of selectors Trevor Honns said here today.

reports AFP. Australia, winners of their past nine Test series, nosedived to a 179-run defeat against India in Chennai on Tuesday in the first of a three-match series.

While some questionable umpiring decisions, particularly by Englishman George Sharp, against the tourists blighted the final day's play, the primary concern was Australia's inability to adapt to the dry,

Board takes Rajesh under its wings

MUMBAI, Mar 11: There was no proposal to send off-spinner Rajesh Chauhan to Hong Kong for treatment of his bowling arm by a specialist there, president of the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) Raj Singh Dungarpur said here today, reports PTI.

Dungarpur told, the press reports, which said that the doctor who had promised to help out Chauhan had backed out at the last minute as the board was not willing to pay his fees, was nothing but, "kite flying" by a few scribes.

"Where is the question of sending Chauhan abroad when the International Cricket Council (ICC) has already cleared him after he went through the tests watched keenly by former England offspinner Fred Titmus", shot back Dungarpur. As far as we (board) are concerned, Chauhan has been cleared by ICC and that is it," he added.

When asked whether the ICC match referee for the on-going India-Aussie Test series, Van Der Merwe of South Africa, had called for the tapes to study the off-spinner's action, the board president said the newspapers seem to know about the incident even before it takes place.

"However, as far as the Indian board is concerned Chauhan has been cleared by the ICC and we stand by that, he added.

While Honns admitted conditions on the subcontinent were "oppressive", he said the Australians were now in the same situation as last year's Ashes series in England and had to respond accordingly.

Australia lost the opening Test against England in Edgbaston last June but rebounded to win the Ashes comfortably. "Australia is a very, very good side and it's going to be a very good test for them from now on," said Honns. "It's the same situation as in England. Okay, the conditions

Prasar Bharati get TV rights

NEW DELHI, Mar 11: In a major move to globalise its sports operations. Prasar Bharati today signed up with the International Cricket Council (ICC) for exclusive telecast rights of the special World Cup tournament to be held in Dhaka from October 24 to November 4, reports PTI.

The multi-crore agreement has been bagged after international bidding to produce and telecast the tournament involving all nine Test playing countries and Prasar Bharati had tied up with a consortium for providing full financial backup for the mega deal. Prasar Bharati CEO, SS Gill said here.

Announcing the agreement at a joint press conference with ICC president Jagmohan Dalmiya, Gill said Doordarshan would get the bulk of profits 60 to 80 per cent with the remaining portion going to the consortium.

"In case of any loses the consortium - presently madeup of Stracon, Creative Eve and Nimbus - will bear it." Gill said adding that the deal for telecasting the tournament on the 'free to air' Doordarshan channel was also in keeping with the commitment to provide entertainment and sports to the section of society which was unable to view private channels beamed through the cable network.

Prasar Bharati, which has also clinched the radio rights. will be producing the event and will look for international buyers through marketing agencies. Gill added.

The tournament comprising eight matches - one pre-quarter final tie between eighth and ninth ranked sides, four quarter-finals, two semifinals and the final - was a one-off event aimed at raising funds for ICC to step up the peace of its development activities. Dalmiya

Sampras sails

INDIAN WELLS, California, Mar 11: Top-ranked Pete Sampras advanced to the third round of the Newsweek Champions' Cup with a 6-1, 7-5 victory over Todd Martin on Tuesday night, reports AP.

In a match that lasted just 1 hour, 4 minutes, Sampras closed the 25-minute first set with four consecutive aces. He broke early in the second set. allowed Martin to break back. then broke again to go ahead 6-5 and served out.

"He hit a couple of good returns. I double-faulted. He's got the game to do that. Sampras said. "But even though he broke me back. I was controlling the points. Played a pretty solid game at 5-all. That was it.

Third seed Patrick Rafter of Australia defeated Wayne Ferreira 7-5, 5-7, 6-4. Czech Bodan Ulirach, a finalist last year, upset No 4 Russia's Yevgeny Kafelnikov 6-3, 6-3.

On the women's side in the Evert Cup tournament, former world No 1 Steffi Graf of Germany cruised into the last four with a 6-3, 6-0 victory of 15thseeded Belarussian Natasha Zvereva. Defending champion Lindsay Davenport advanced to the quarterfinals with a 6-2, 6-2 win over Romanian Ruxandra Dragomir.

Joannette Kruger upset No 4 Amanda Coetzer 2-6, 6-4, 6-4 in an all-South African match, and will play Venus Williams, who beat Belgium's Dominique Van Roost 6-4, 6-1.

and he's lost some of his sparkle. I hope that the true Zola returns," he said.

Maldini meanwhile paid tribute to 23-year-old Del Piero, a star-in-waiting who has finally exploded this season with 22 goals for Juventus and one for Italy against Slovakia. Maldini said he had not overlooked Roberto Baggio, and was also keeping tab on Fabrizio Ravanelli, Christian Vieri and Pierluigi Casiraghi, who is struggling to win a first-team place at Lazio. "Fabrizio is playing in a different position with Olympique Marseille than he did in Italy or in England, being further back on the right flank," he noted. "Christian hasn't changed, but he's not happy with the physical training system at Atletico Madrid and is follow-
