Bangabandhu's birth anniversary to be celebrated at state level

The 78th birth anniversary of Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman will be celebrated at the state level on March 17, said an official handout Friday night, reports UNB.
The day is a public holiday. The Ministry of Cultural Affairs has taken up an elaborate programme on the occasion.

Bangladesh Better and Bangladesh Television will broadcast special programmes and newspapers will publish special supplements on the day. Bangladesh missions abroad will also observe the day through various programmes. A number of sub-committees have been formed for organising the day's programmes.

The main venue of the day's programme will be at Tungipara, where Bangabandhu was born and laid to rest. The programmes include a children-juvenile's rally and a painting competition for children in the morning at Tungipara.

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina will distribute prizes among the winners. In the afternoon, a discussion meeting and a musical soiree will be held at G T High School ground at Tungipara.

Besides, there will be a mobile exhibition of books on Bangabandhu's life and the Liberation War. In Dhaka, Shilpakala Academy, Shishu Academy, National Museum, Nazrul Institute, National Book Centre and Islamic Foundation will jointly hold a discussion meeting and a cultural programme.

Divisional, district and thana administrations will take up local level programmes to observe the day in a befitting manner.

AL programme

Awami League has planned an elaborate programme to observe Bangabandhu's 79th birth anniversary.

On the occasion, a discussion will be held tomorrow at Ramna Batamul at 3 pm. Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina will preside, while Justice K M Sobhan, Dr Nilima Ibrahim, Prof Kabir Chowdhury will participate.

On Tuesday, national and party flags will be hoisted atop the AL central office and Bangabandhu Bhaban at 5:30 am. Sheikh Hasina will garland the portrait of Bangabandhu at Bangabandhu Bhaban at 6 am.

At Tungipara, Hasina will place wreath at the mazar of Bangabandhu, offer fatiha, attend a milad mahfil.

Awami League will also organise similar programmes across the country.

Folk festival concludes

State Minister for Youth, Sports and Cultural Affairs Obaidul Quader yesterday said the government is pledged to restore the glorious past and heritage of Sonargaon, reports BSS.

The government has taken all out efforts to build the village as a bastion of art and culture, the minister said while addressing the concluding ceremony of the month-long craft fair and folk festival at Sonargaon.

Chaired by Director of Bangladesh Folk and Craft Foundation Syed Mahabub Alam, the function was also addressed by Cultural Secretary Dr S Jamal Majumder, Narayanganj district Awami League president Prof Nazma Rahman and Sonargaon thana Awami League president Abul Hasnat.

The minister said Taka one crore has already been allocated to the Folk and Craft Foundation for its development.

The concluding ceremony was followed by a cultural function.
