Windies make slow progress

West Indies crawled to 142 for three at lunch on Day 3 of the fifth Cable and Wireless cricket Test against England at the Kensington Oval in Barbados yesterday. The home side's hopes for a sizeable total were dashed when skipper Brian Lara was caught at cover off medium-paceman

Dean Headley after making 31. 36-year-old Guyanese lefthander Clayton Lambert (44) and fellow islander Shivnarine Chanderpaul were batting.

The morning session belonged to the tourists who managed to put the breaks on the Caribbeans' efforts in reaching 203 to avoid the follow-on.

All the batsmen found scoring difficult on a pitch rapidly becoming slower and slower by the over.

a certainty as talks of a consensus panel failed on Saturday, the day of filing nominations for 29 posts of the Executive Committee for the most-sought after federation in the country.

That negotiations for a single panel had fallen through became apparent when a group, led by former BCB general secretary Aminul Haq Moni, submitted its nomination papers at the National Sports Council (NSC) yesterday afternoon ahead of the panel backed by incumbent BCB Saber Hossain Chowdhury.

The BCB president, who was seemingly adamant not to cede a joint-secretary post to the Mohammedan-led block, finalised his panel with internationally-reputed cricket organiser Ashraful Haq as the General Secretary candidate for the elections to be held on March

Fifty-three nomination papers were submitted on the day with Saber's Jatiya Shommelito Parishad (JSP) being the only group to field a full panel. Among the contestants Ashraful, a vice-president of the present ad-hoc committee. was looking to win uncontested until a surprise opponent came to the fore. Although the Election Commission was yet to complete the scrutiny of papers, it was learnt that Al Mamun, general secretary of Bogra District Sports Association, has submitted his nomination to contest Ashraful for the most demanding post.

Afzal Rahman Sinha, a JSP candidate for the post of Treasurer, is likely to win uncontested. But the dog-fight will centre around the five posts of vice-presidents and two of joint

But off the quintet, Ali Khabir of Brothers Union and Tanvir Haider, a former national player and the additional general secretary of Mohammedan Sporting, is likely to face a stiff challenge from Aminul Haq and Kazi Usha

But all eyes will be focussed on the election to the two jointsecretary posts, where Dewan Shafiul Arefin Tutul and Mahmudul Haq Manu of JSP will be contesting against three nominees --- Khaled Hasan, Shah Nurul Kabir and Mahabubul Alam --- of the rival group.

According to sources close to both groups, the negotiations eventually failed when Saber Hossain decided on bank of Tutul and Manu.

"We demanded the post of a vice-president, a joint-secretary and a member", said Aminul Haq at the NSC last evening. "But the representatives of the BCB president could not comply with our demands. Although we wanted to talk to the president to end the stalemate, he expressed his reluctance to meet us. It was not possible for him to talk with us. That was what his messengers conveyed", said Aminul. " But we were surprised when he (Saber) attended a meeting with the representatives of the districts", added Aminul.

On the other hand, Mozammel Haq, a mediator for Saber, said: "We have even offered them two vice-president posts. But they wanted a joint-secretary post for which the president had already finalised nominees and he was not willing to make changes for those posts in his panel".

" But there are still chances of a last-minute understanding", said a seasoned organiser Jinnah, president of the Metropolis Club Association.

The last date of withdrawing nominations has been fixed for March 18. One hundred and twenty-five councillors will cast their votes for the BCB elections.

California, Mar 14: Martina Hingis guaranteed an Evert Cup final between the top two women in the world when she whipped eighth-seeded Venus Williams 6-0, 7-6 (9-7) in the semifinals Friday, reports Reuters.

The Swiss world number one will face second-ranked American Lindsay Davenport in today's final.

Davenport got the opportunity to defend her Evert Cup title when Steffi Graf injured her left hamstring and had to retire from their semifinal match Thursday night, trailing 6-4, 4-

Despite the clear-cut loss to Hingis, Williams reiterated her belief that in the future it will be she and her sister, Serena, who will be the top two players in the world.

Hingis was bemused by the declaration.

Pakistan A outplay Indians in first one-dayer

Star Sport Monitor

Pakistan A outplayed their Indian opponents in both bowling and batting to take a 1-0 lead in the three-match one-day series at the Sheikhupura Stadium on Friday. The home team defeated the visitors six wickets, according to a report of The Dawn newspaper.

When left-hander Mohammad Husain lifted all-rounder Rohan Gavaskar over his head, Pakistan 'A' coasted home to a facile win by totalling 228 in 39.3 overs.

Shahid Afridi bowled brilliantly in this match to take three wickets each while Abdul Razzaq and Arshad Khan picked up two scalps each.

Earlier, batting first, strong India A were restricted to an attainable total of 223 in 47.3 overs.

Sodhi top-scored for the tourists with a polished knock of 51 that was studded with one six and three boundaries.

Chasing 224 for victory in 50 overs, Pakistan A made a bright beginning when Shahid Afridi and Saleem Elahi put on 72 runs in the opening stand. Akhter Sharfaraz top-scored with 90 and was declared player-of-the-match later. Shahid Afridi played only 22 balls for his swashbuckling knock of 37.

Another MLS season starts

its third season on Sunday with two new teams. expanded network television exposure and some serious challenges to the future health reports Reuters. The addition of the Miami Fusion and Chicago Fire bring the MLS up to 12 teams.

of the US Premier league,

The Fusion will open the season by hosting two-time defending champions DC United in Fort Lauderdale in a nationally televised game-part of a new 12-game package to be carried on the ABC network.

But a potentially larger TV audience does to guarantee more fans in stadium seats and MLS must make sure that last season's dramatic drop-off in attendance is not repeated.

In addition, officials will have to figure out how to keep the World Cup from disrupting any momentum MLS may gain in the spring, and find ways to lure more big-name foreigners into the fold.

After an encouraging first season, league attendance dropped 15 per cent from an average of 17,416 per game in 1996 to 14.616 last year, a decrease MLS cannot afford to duplicate.

Commissioner Doug Logan called the drop "within the range of what we actually had in our original plan. "I'm not overly disturbed about that (drop-off) unless it becomes a two-year or threeyear trend," he said.

Fan loyalty will be severely tested during the World Cup in France in June and July.

Unlike the national hockey league, which shut down during the Winter Olympics, MLS play will continue through the World Cup, even though teams will lose top American players and a select number of foreigners to the sport's Premier event.

"I see it as an extraordinary opportunity," Logan said, putting a positive spin on the

"The eyes of the world will be on our sport. It is an opportunity for people to come see our sport," Logan continued.

Agassi streak over

INDIAN WELLS, California, Mar 14: Jan-Michael Gambill, ranked 126th in the world and a wild-card entry into the Newsweek Champions' Cup, has ended Andre Agassi's 13-match winning streak with a 7-6 (8-6), 3-6, 6-3 victory, reports AP.

It was the third-quarterfinal meeting between the two Americans in a month. Agassi had beaten Gambill in the San Jose and Scottsdale, Ariz Tournaments.

The 27-year-old Agassi, coming back from a two-year slump, had won two titles this year before Gambill ended his string of match victories. His recent play has moved him up to No 40 in the world after he finished 1997 ranked 121st.
