Bid to kidnap two girls foiled, woman held

Local people have rounded up a woman for her alleged attempt to kidnap two school girls at Uttara in the city yesterday and handed her over to the police, reports UNB. Police said Fatema (34) allegedly lured out Srabani Akhter (7) and Masuda (11), students of class II in Azampur Government School, while they were playing at the school ground.

DRU fellowships

Dhaka Reporters' Unity (DRU) has decided to introduce five fellowships for investigative journalism for its members, reports UNB. The fellowships will be offered this year with financial assistance from the European Union, said a press release yesterday.

Nominations have been invited from DRU members by March 31 describing the subject of the proposed report.

Erratum

In a news item under headline 'Newspaper holiday' published on page 2 of The Daily Star yesterday, it was inadvertently mentioned that newspapers will be published on March 18. In fact, no newspaper will be published on March 18.
