Big-hitting West Indian openers Wallace and Clayton Lambert had surged to 55 when the incidents occurred, denying England the breakthrough they craved when they gave the West Indies 19 overs' batting.

First third umpire Halley Moore refused to confirm that Wallace had been run out when Alec Stewart's throw hit the stumps — although television replays appeared to confirm that Wallace's bat had not been grounded.

Hwang back in action

SEOUL, Mar 16: One of South Korea's best strikers will return to play in a friendly match against Japan next month, the Korean Football Association said Monday, reports AP.

Striker Hwang Sun-hong,

30, will rejoin the national team for the April 1 game in Seoul, strengthening their forward attack along with Choi Yong-soon, 25. Hwang and Choi are considered to be South Korea's best scorers. Hwang was sidelined in December, 1996, after suffering a knee injury during the Asian Cup games. He went to Germany for treatment and recently returned to South Korea. The football association quoted national team coach Cha Bum-keun as saying that Hwang has "fully recovered and is in a very good condition." Hwang's comeback is expected to give a boost to the Korean team, who have been criticised for poor play in recent months. Earlier this month, South Korea came in third behind Japan and China in the fourteam Dynasty Cup. The fourth team came from Hong Kong.
