

Sir Richard Hadlee

(Former New Zealand allrounder)

"To compare today's allrounders with Sir Garfield Sobers is a forlorn exercise: there quite simply isn't room for comparison. While Imran, Botham, Kapil and I all have better bowling records than Sobers just can't come close in the true allround sense."

BULAWAYO, Mar 18: A record-breaking fifth-wicket stand of 277 between Murray Goodwin and An-Flower enabled Zimbabwe to set Pakistan a daunting target of 368 to win the first Test at Queen's Sports Club on Tuesday, reports Reuters.

They had reduced that target by 24 runs without losing a wicket by the close. But Saeed Anwar was forced to retire hurt on seven after being struck in the box by fast bowler Heath Streak.

With pace bowler Waqar Younis off the field for the final two sessions because of a badly bruised left foot, Zimbabwe plundered runs at will on an excellent betting surface and declared their second innings closed at 302 for four.

Goodwin, with an unbeaten 166, and Flower, 100 not out, shared an unbroken stand of 277 to take Zimbabwe to 302 for

Their partnership broke the Zimbabwe fifth-wicket record of 233 set by Grant Flower and Guy Whittall against Pakistan in Harare during the 1994-95

It also surpassed Zimbabwe's benchmark for any wicket - 269 posted by the fourth-wicket pair of Grant and Andy Flower in the same Test.

The two had come together with Zimbabwe in some trouble during the morning at 25 for Goodwin, in making both a Test best and career-best score in his fifth Test, hit 17 fours and four sixes off 204 balls. He survived just one chance when he was put down on 108 by substitute fielder Mohammad Akram at backward point.

Goodwin, who played two sea-sons of Sheffield Shield cricket, went on to surpass his previous best first-class score of 127 for Western Australia against Queensland in Perth during

Exit seven, enter five

SYDNEY, Mar 18: Australia's cricket selectors told seven members of the Test squad that they would be sent home early from the tour of India, just hours before the team's disastrous start to the second Test on Wednesday, reports AP.

The decision to bring back seven of the 15-man Test squad and send five new players across for the limited-over triseries and the Sharjah tournament was labelled a disruptive move by Australian commentators in Calcutta.

Two of the seven players to be brought home after the third Test, Michael Slater and Greg Blewett, failed to score as India claimed their wickets in the first over of the Test.

Test captain Mark Taylor, another dropped from the limited overs squad, made just hree as Australia crashed to 29 for four in the first hour after losing the opening Test of the three-match series.

Respected cricket commen tator and writer Mike Coward said the Australian team was unhappy with the timing of the decision and said it could only hurt team morale.

Taylor will be replaced by Steve Waugh as captain for the series, which runs April 1-14.

Damien Fleming, Damien Martyn, Adam Gilchrist, Michael Bevan and Tom Moody have been called up for the series in a 13-man squad.

Lara responds to reality

Antigua on Friday, reports AFP. Lara, who took over as captain from Jamaican paceman Courtney Walsh at the start of the series, had been criticised for retaining fast bowler Bishop, whose form has been blighted by two severe back injuries, and 34-year-old Williams, who went from a high of 65 in the second Test to three successive du cks.

The pair have been replaced in a 13-man squad, who will be endeavouring to wrap up the series which they lead 2-1, by the recalled duo of Jamaican fast bowler Franklyn Rose and wicketkeeper Junior Murray of the Windward Islands.

Bishop, who took his 50th wicket against England in the drawn fifth Test here this week, has had an unhappy series, unable to summon the pace and penetration to be a telling fourth prong in the fast bowling attack.

The Trinidadian, who has taken 161 wickets at an average of 24.27 in 43 Tests, enjoyed his finest moment of the series when his hard-hitting innings of 47 not out in the second innings of the fourth Test set England an imposing total which led to them being routed by over 200 runs.

Rose, who has taken 26 wickets at 26.23 in nine Tests. has not played in any of the matches during the current series and was not even in the

Murray, who has taken 92 catches and three stumpings in 28 Tests, could well add a muchneeded resilience to the lowerorder as he averages 25.69 with the bat, including an unbeaten century against New Zealand in 1994-95.
