THAT modern gymnasium derives from the Greek word gymnos meaning 'naked'. In ancient Greece, it was originally a public sports ground.

The athletes, who exercised naked, were supervised by a hierarchy of officials who were responsible for their morals, their exercises, and their health.

Sonia's double delight

MARRAKESH, Mar 23: Ireland's Sonia O'Sullivan wrote herself into the record books here on Sunday when she won the women's short course world cross-country title to complete a unique double, reports AFP.

The former 5,000 metre world record holder only decided to go for the double early Sunday morning.

Kenya's Paul Tergat also went into the record books when he won the men's race for the fourth consecutive year.

Tergat kicked on the final straight, leaving second placed Paul Koesch.

SL fall 70 runs short

CAPE TOWN, Mar 23: South Africa beat Sri Lanka by 70 runs on Monday in the first Test of their two-match series, reports AP.

Needing 377 runs to win, Sri Lanka were bowled out for 306 just 28 minutes before the tea break.

Debutant Makhaya Ntini, the first black to play Test cricket for South Africa, knocked back Pramodaya Wickramasinghe's stumps to seal the win for the home side.

Wickramasinghe hammered 51 runs off just 45 balls and delayed the inevitable with Muttiah Muralitharan and No. 11 Ravindra Pushpakumara, taking Sri Lanka from 239 for eight.

Wickramasinghe smashed eight boundaries and a six to provide some late heroics for Sri Lanka, though a South African victory seemed certain.

Resuming on 209 for five after the lunch break, Sri Lanka raced to 226 when Hansie Cronje decided to take the second new ball.

Fast bowlers Allan Donald and Shaun Pollock, armed with the new ball after lunch, shot through the Sri Lanka lower order.

Donald struck with the first two deliveries of the second over, removing left handers Hashan Tillekaratne and Chaminda Vaas.

Tillakaratne, who batted just over an hour for his 13 runs, was trapped leg before wicket. Vaas was contentiously ruled caught behind by International Cricket Council's independent umpire, New Zealander Steve Dunne.

Earlier in the innings, Muttiah Muralitharan, who batted just over an hour for his 13 runs, was trapped leg before wicket.

Dunne gave opener Sanath Jayasuriya out leg before wicket. Sri Lanka started the last day on 120 for three, needing another 257 runs in a minimum of 90 overs to secure an unlikely win.

The overnight pair of Marvan Atapattu and skipper Arjuna Ranatunga lasted 74 minutes as they extended the fourth wicket stand to 73 before left-arm spinner Paul Adams and medium-paceman Jacques Kallis struck.

In the space of four runs, both batsmen were back in the pavilion, taking with them Sri Lanka's hopes.

Adams, who had Ranatunga dropped by Gary Kirsten at extra cover in the previous over, had Atapattu caught and bowled as the opener looked to drive.

Atapattu followed up his first innings 60 with 71, batting for two minutes over four hours and hitting nine boundaries. His stand with the skipper—73 runs in 106 minutes—for the third wicket had given the visitors some hope of closing on the target.

Ranatunga didn't last too long. Dropped on 33, he slashed at the deceptive medium pace of Kallis, and Kirsten at first slip made no mistake.

Ranatunga's 43 runs included six boundaries in just under two hours. Donald took 3 for 64 while Pollock and Adams took two wickets each.

Paul, Ricky cross the limit CALCUTTA, Mar 23 (AP): After their problems with the intense heat, poor form and Indian food, Australian cricketers had trouble of a different kind—at a disco.

Ricky Ponting and Paul Wilson were thrown out of the Equinox disco at the Peerless Hotel in Calcutta after a party attended by cricketers and film stars. The Statesman newspaper reported Monday.

Trouble started when the Australians were barred early Sunday because they did not have dates, required under the disco's rules. Ponting allegedly hit a security guard and pushed a woman at the disco, it said. Police were investigating the incident, but would not comment on it.

Australia's team manager Steve Bernard said he knew nothing about the incident. The Australians left Monday for the southern city Bangalore where they will play the last and final cricket Test against India starting March 25.

WA's 14th triumph PERTH, Australia, Mar 23: A superb knock of 189 by Michael Divenuto was not enough to save Tasmania from a thumping seven-wicket defeat by Western Australia in the Sheffield Shield cricket final here today, reports AFP.

Tom Moody's Western Australians won late on the fourth day of a clash scheduled for five days to claim Australian domestic cricket's holy grail for the 14th time in 51 seasons in the world's strongest national contest.

Tasmania were aiming to lift the title for the first time in their 21 seasons in the competition. Divenuto's knock of almost six hours, embracing 30 crisp boundaries, was the highest of the left-hander's eight centuries in first-class cricket.

It was the backbone of Tasmania's second innings 348, which gave them an overall lead of 63 after they trailed by a whopping 286 on the first innings.

Western Australia lost 3-63 in their second innings in knocking off the winning runs.

Hingis, Sanchez sail KEY BISCAYNE, Florida, Mar 23: World No 1 Martina Hingis blitzed South Africa's Joannette Kruger 6-0, 6-0 in just 35 minutes to reach the fourth round of the women's singles at the 4.6 million dollars Lipton Championships here Sunday, reports AFP.

The Swiss teenager, who was able to take advantage of 35 unforced errors by Kruger, said: "I played a good match. I wasn't worried—but when the other player on the court is ranked 23rd, I know she is a dangerous player."

Hingis, who won her second title of the year a week ago at Indian Wells, has now won 17 of 19 matches so far this season. She also took her fourth Grand Slam title in two years at the Australian Open.

"I can do more," said Hingis, who won 12 titles in 1997, adding: "I can be stronger physically and mentally."

In other women's singles, Spas Arantxa Sanchez-Vicario, the eighth seed, beat Argentina's Florencia Labat 6-0, 6-1 in 43 minutes while third-seeded Czech Jana Novotna struggled in patches but put out German qualifier Jana Kandarr 6-3, 4-6, 6-3.

Three-time champ on Andre Agassi swept into the fourth round in the men's singles when he beat fellow-American Vince Spadea 6-4, 7-5.

Rain forced postponement of three night matches, including fifth seed Monica Seles against Russia's Anna Kournikova and fifth-seeded Brit Greg Rusedski against Swiss veteran Marc Rosset.

Inter find their feet

ROME, Mar 23: Inter Milan rekindled their championship ambitions in impressive style on Sunday, defeating arch-rivals AC Milan 3-0 and moving to within a point of leaders Juventus, reports AFP.

Two goals from Argentine Diego Simeone and a third from Brazilian Ronaldo insured that Inter took full advantage of Juventus' 2-2 draw at Parma and Lazio's scoreless draw at home to Lazio.

With eight matches remaining in the closest Serie A race since 1991, Juventus have 54 points, one ahead of Inter and two in front of Lazio. Udinese, 3-1 winners over Brescia, are fourth on 49.

Inter dominated the 21st Milan derby throughout and narrowly failed to take the lead in the eighth minute when Simeone's shot was well-saved by keeper Sebastiano Rossi.

The Argentine took revenge in the 42nd minute, heading home a corner from close-range to put Inter 1-0 up at the break. Milan, unbeaten in seven matches and without a league win in the derby since 1994, pushed for an equaliser and almost inevitably, were caught by Inter's rapier-like counter-attack.

In the 76th minute, Francesco Moriero broke clear on the right and curled perfect pass round Milan's back four for Ronaldo to delicately chip the ball over Sebastiano Rossi.

Inter finished as they started, with Ronaldo releasing Simeone, who rounded Rossi and slid home the ball.

In the last two matches, Inter have now gained three points on Juventus, who needed second-half goals from Alessio Tacchinardi and Filippo Inzaghi to salvage a 2-2 draw.

The champions looked destined for their third defeat of the season when headers from Croatia Mario Stanic and Massimo Crippa, both off Enrico Chiesa crosses, put Parma 2-0 up in 45 minutes.

At halftime, coach Marcello Lippi marked his 200th match in charge of Juventus with an inspired change of tactics. Abandoning his policy of fielding the same side that had so impressively won the midweek European Champions Cup quarter-final with Dynamo Kiev, Lippi sent on Tacchinardi and Angelo Di Livio.

Within nine minutes, Parma keeper Gianluigi Buffon had failed to hold Inzaghi's close-range shot and Tacchinardi was on hand to pull Juventus back into the match.

Inter find their feet

huff, struck a second after the break—his 19th of the season. Croatia Ivan Javoric briefly rescued Brescia's hopes with a 77th minute effort, but Brazilian Marcelo Amoroso's late pile-driver settled the contest.

Argentina's Abel Balbo, who openly sworn at AS Roma manager Zdenek Zeman after being substituted a week ago, responded to an unexpected recall with an 11th minute opener at Vicenza.

But the Cup Winners' Cup quarter-finalists quickly equalised through Pasquale Luiso to frustrate Roma's hopes of improving on their fifth place.

Eight years ago, Roberto Baggio famously refused to take a penalty for Juventus against his old club Fiorentina for fear of provoking a riot on the streets of Florence.
