ADB to assist
Ctg Port dev

Asian Development Bank (ADB) will provide assistance for the development of various infrastructure in Chittagong port, reports UNB.

This was stated by the visiting ADB mission chief Albab Akand when he called on Deputy Minister for Shipping Saheb Hossain Choudhury in the city yesterday.

During the meeting, the mission chief informed the Minister that ADB will prepare a report by September next identifying the probable sectors to be assisted by the bank.

Choudhury mentioned various steps taken by the government for the development of all the ports of the country including Chittagong port.

Nat'l Disaster
Preparedness
Day Tuesday

National Disaster Preparedness Day, fixed by the government on the last day of March, will be observed in national and district level for the first time on Tuesday, reports UNB.

The government has decided to observe the day every year with an objective to create mass awareness about various natural calamities so that people can take proper precaution to face those and keep the loss of properties at the minimal level.

This year, the theme is "Cycle is the main cause for the loss of lives, resources and environment in Bangladesh."

Various government and non-government organisations in coordination with United Nations Disaster Management Team will chalk out programmes to mark the day.

On the occasion, a rally will be brought out from Central Shaheed Minar at 7:30 am. State Minister for Disaster Management and Relief will lead the rally to the National Museum to inaugurate the day.

Later, a seminar will be held at the museum auditorium at 11 am in which the experts will hold discussion on the key-note paper, said an official handout.

Qulkhwan

Qulkhwan of G S Chowdhury will be held at his village home at Joypara, Dohar on Tuesday after Asr prayers.

Another milad mahfil will be held at his residence at 70, Nayapaltan on April 3 after Asr prayers, says a press release.

One receives stab injury

By Staff Correspondent

A middle-aged man received stab injuries following attack by his younger brother with sharp weapons at their residence at Dhanmondi early yesterday.

The injured identified as Ahmed Ali, reportedly a Director of Ashraf Textiles, was rushed to a local clinic soon after the incident, police sources said.

Ahmed Ali and his younger brother Abu Taher, both sons of Abdul Wahab, were locked in an altercation following an internal family feud at about 12:15 am.

At one stage, Taher attacked Ahmed with a kitchen knife and stabbed him in different parts of the body, police added.

Taher has been absconding since the incident. A case has been filed with Dhanmondi police station.
