Knight blazes England's trail

Lara ploughs in sands

BRIDGETOWN. Barbados, Mar 30: Left-hander Nick Knight hit a superb 122 as England beat the West Indies by 16 runs in a highscoring limited-over international at Kensington Oval here Sunday. The win came despite a century by West Indies captain Brian Lara.

Knight and Alec Stewart (74) shared an opening stand of 165 that lifted England to a formidable 293 for five off 50

Lara lashed three sixes and 15 fours in 110 off 106 balls his 12th ODI ton. The home team eventually fell for 277 off 46.5 overs.

Player-of-the-match knight, 28, from Warwickshire, hit four sixes and 13 fours off 129 balls in just under three hours to notch his third one-day hundred.

Stewart, a right-hander from Surrey, played with slightly less assurance for his 74, which spanned 85 balls and was laced with nine boundaries. The pair, making use of a perfect batting pitch, launched the England innings in fine style after Lara won the toss. Even the usually miserly Curtly Ambrose ran into the Marauding Knight, being hauled over the leg side for two sixes. Fast bowler Ambrose's eight overs cost 42 runs. By the time Stewart was bowled by Courtney Walsh at 165, the opening pair had established a new first wicket record for England against the West Indies in limited-over internationals.

The previous mark had been 156 between Michael Atherton and Graham Gooch in Manchester in 1991.

Knight, who led the England "A" team to Sri Lanka and Kenya last winter, shared another well-paced stand of 62 with Graeme Hick to consolidate the tourists' advantage. Hick made 29 off 39 balls before he was bowled by Rawal Lewis' leg break.

Knight was run out next ball after a mix-up with Graham Thorpe.

Carl Hooper bowled his off breaks effectively to be the most economical bowler, his 10 overs costing 46 runs.

West Indies reply began with similar flourish. Clayton Lambert and Philo Wallace hit five boundaries in 25 before both fell within two runs of each other in the third and fourth

But that double setback brought the best out of Lara and Carl Hooper.

The pair shared a dazzling partnership of 88 off 82 balls in an hour that gave the home team the upper hand.

But Lara lost Hooper and the rest of the middle order could not provide solid support. Hooper made 45 off just 34 balls with eight delightful bound-

Lara was finally run out going for a second run to Ben Hollioake on the cover boundary. Bowlers Rawal Lewis and

The Commonwealth Club are likely to include national vice-captain Aminul Islam Bulbul, Naimur Rashid Rahul, Raquibul Hasan, Zakir Hossain, Imran Hamid Partha and Iqbal Hossain.

The tournament will begin on Wednesday.

Plan to hold more Ind-Pak hockey

ISLAMABAD, Mar 30: In a bid to promote hockey in the sub-continent, India and Pakistan have decided to hold a sixteam hockey tournament next year apart from holding the hockey series annually following the success of the recently held eight-match Test series. reports PTI.

Akhtar Rasool, the chief of the Pakistan Hockey Federation (PHF), said in Lahore Saturday that he and his Indian counterpart have agreed to hold the six-team tournament sometime next year in which three teams from each side will participate.

There would be two senior teams and one under-21 team from each side in the proposed tournament which would be played on a double leg basis, he

Both sides have also agreed to hold a Indo-Pak hockey Test series on an annual basis which would benefit both the teams in their preparations for international tournaments, he said.

While complimenting the Pakistani team for winning the eight-match series he said : "The series against India was tense and thrilling and the outcome of every match was decided in the late 35-minute of each game.

He said the series has helped the two countries to revive the plaguing fortunes of their hockey and will contribute in a long way in future development and promotion of the game.

He also said specially a series against India always augurs well for Pakistan as it had played similar hockey series against India prior to the 1978 World Cup and 1984 Olympics and had went on to win these tournaments.

The Indo-Pak hockey series this year was revived after more than decade as India first visited Pakistan to play four Test matches and then Pakistan want to India to complete the eight-match series.

The series witnessed some thrilling matches as India after being down by 0-2 initially bounced back to level the series and then took the lead by 3-2 but Pakistan finally won the series by winning the last two

Both India and Pakistan are in the process of building their teams for the forthcoming World Cup which is due in Holland in May this year.

Virus may force Rafter out

MILDURA, Australia, Mar 30: US Open champion Pat Rafter is in doubt for Australia's first-round Davis Cup tie against Zimbabwe after suffering a virus, reports AP.

The No. 4-ranked Rafter was expected to lead the Australians in the tie against Zimbabwe. starting on Friday. "He picked up a bad virus in Europe five weeks ago and it's flared up again and gone into his muscles." Australian captain John Newcombe said Mon-"He hit for about half an hour yesterday but had a relapse. It's a race against time at the moment - I'd say he was only a 50-50 chance to play." Australian doubles star Todd Woodbridge is also trying to beat a virus, which caused him to withdraw from the Lip-

The former bad boy is now the best. Rios, who entered the tournament at No 3, will end Sampras' streak of 102 consecutive weeks at No 1 when the new rankings come out Monday. Sampras lost in the third round at Lipton by Wayne Ferreira. Critics contend that Rios ranking is tainted because he hasn't won a Grand Slam. Agassi said Rios deserves No 1 for now.

Rios, the runnerup at the Australian Open in January, is only the second player to reach No 1 without having won a major tournament. The other was Ivan Lendl in 1983, who went on to win eight Grand Slams.

Rios acknowledged that his edge over Sampras and other top players is slim and tenuous.

Several charter planes made the nine-hour flight from Chile bringing fans for the final, and they began chanting and singing an hour before the match. The Davis Cup-type atmosphere inspired Rios, who took a quick 3-0 lead.

The most prestigious title of Rios career earned him 360,000 dollars. He has won 11 consecutive matches, and his 25-3 record this year is the best on the tour.

Agassi received 190,000 dollars and climbed to 22nd in the rankings, continuing a resurgence that began in November, when he was No 141.

"It was certainly a tournament that took me in the right direction," Agassi said. "But I'm starting to think about winning these now. So it's still disappointing."

Away in Santiago, thousands of Chileans took the streets to celebrate Rios' vic-

Sprawling Plaza Italia in downtown Santiago, a traditional location for celebrating Chile's soccer victories, was quickly filled by thousands of people chanting "Rios, Rios, number one."

The massive celebrations were natural for a country not used to sports victories on the world stage. Chile's only standing world record is the 1947 equestrian jump by the late Capt Alberto Larraguibel on Huaso.

In the women's doubles final Martina Hingis and Jana Novotna beat Arantxa Sanchez-Vicario and Natasha Zvereva 6-2, 3-6, 6-3.
