Dhaka's commitment to principles of UN charter iterated

Bangladesh reiterated its firm commitment to the principles of the United Nations Charter and UN peacekeeping activities, reports UNB. This was stated by Ambassador Anwarul Karim Chowdhury, permanent representative of Bangladesh to the United Nations while he was making his statement on the special committee on peacekeeping operation at UN headquarters in New York on Monday, according to a message received in the city yesterday. The Ambassador conveyed the satisfaction of Bangladesh for introducing the uniform rate of death and disability compensation and urged that the secretariat should arrange for speedy payment of compensation alleviating the suffering of the affected families. Ambassador Chowdhury emphasised on the training of the troops and police personnel engaged in the peacekeeping operation. He also said that all member states should fulfill their commitments and pay their contribution in full, on time and without condition.
