BRASILIA, Brazil, Apr 1 Pele is resigning his post as Brazil's Special Minister of Sports to do TV commentary at the World Cup - and his job may be gone when he returns. reports AP.

Soccer's greatest player will resign on Thursday to join the Globo TV network team covering this summer's Cup in France, said Pele's spokesman. Jose Natal.

In Paris, the head of French Television said Pele will be a consultant at the World Cup and also provide commentary.

Xavier Gouyou Beauchamps said Pele will be a guest at the tournament's opening game between Brazil and Scotland on June 10. Pele, who does not speak French, will use an interpreter to address his French audience on the France 2 and France 3 channels.

Coca Cola's cheerful 777

SEOUL, Apr 1: Coca-Cola Korea Co Ltd said Tuesday it will send a 777-member South Korean cheering squad to this summer's World Cup soccer finals, reports AP.

"We've chosen the number 777 to wish luck to the South Korean team so that they can make it to the second round of the World Cup," said Kim Wooyoung, a company spokeswoman.

Coca-Cola said it will bear all travel expenses of the South Korean cheering squad for the first scheduled South Korean match, against Belgium on June

The beneficiaries will be chosen through lottery, newspaper quizzes and other events.

The company also plans to send five South Korean teenagers to work as volunteer ball boys and flag bearers during the World Cup.

It was Ze Elias' second goal in the UEFA Cup this season and Inter's second consecutive 2-1 victory in four days.

The Milan team, second to Juventus in the Serie A standings, downed Vicenza 2-1 in a league match Saturday.

In Madrid, 50,000 fans left Vicente Calderon stadium disappointed as the right-footed strike from the Yugoslav international Jugovic gave Lazio a precious away goal going into the second leg in two weeks.

Atletico pushed forward after the Yugoslav international's goal in the 33rd minute and the home team's ever present Italian star Christian Vieri looked dangerous until the end.

Vieri forced fellow countryman Luca Marchegiani to save a close shot in the 40th and twice more in the first 10 minutes after the break.

The Spanish team's Santiago Denia Sanchez also headed a near miss and substitute Jose Mari Romero smashed another notable opportunity just a little too wide.

But Italian team, solidly defended their treasured away goal, survived the pressure and took advantage of the extra confidence as the game moved on to launch the occasional foray into the Atletico half.

These included a methodically dangerous approach from Diego Fuser blocked at the post by goalkeeper Francisco Molina.

Jose Luis Caminero and Brazil's Andrei Frascarelli received yellow cards during the match that automatically exclude them from the Atletico squad for the second leg in two weeks time as did Lazio's hero

Young Pakistan fast bowler Abdul Razzak is being rushed to South Africa on team's but the PCB boss claimed to be unaware of the reinforcement, according to press reports in Karachi and Lahore.

The chairman of the Pakistan Cricket Board Khalid Mahmood was unaware till late Tuesday night that Razzak was flown to South Africa Wednesday on the request of the Pakistan team tour selection committee.

When The News correspondent contacted Mahmood at his residence in Lahore, he stated categorically that no final decision had been taken on sending any reinforcement to South Africa nor on any player being sent back home from there. He was commenting on reports that the tour selection committee had reported to the board that three players Inzamam. Shoaib Akhtar and Azhar Mahmood had injuries and they wanted reinforcements. The surprising thing is that on Tuesday evening, an unidentified board spokesman gave out a press release from Lahore that Razzak was being rushed to South Africa on the request of the tour selection committee after the national selectors Zaheer Abbas and Shafiq Ahmed had approved their request for a reinforcement by name, the report said.

Apparently this is a case of tit for tat. Few weeks ago Mahmood had announced sending Wasim Akram to South Africa without consulting the selectors which led to the resignation of Saleem Altaf. This time it seems the selectors decided to send Razzak without informing According to another The Star Sport Monitor news report, the sub-committee. appointed by senate standing committee for Tourism, Culture and Sports, has given PCB Special Betting and Gambling Probe Committee the July 31 deadline for submission of their findings about country's leading cricketers, especially against Wasim Akram on match-fixing allegation.

Dr. Javed Iqbal, who heads the three member sub-committee with Senators Iqbal Haider and Aqil Shah as members, made it clear that present and past team members including managers would be called during investigations.

Meanwhile, hours after the probe body, met in Lahore, former captain Imran Khan made a strong plea for having a full scale inquiry into the bribery allegations.

lmran, now a fulltime politician, said on the allegations constantly haunting Pakistan cricket, that the time had come for a proper inquiry to be conducted into them and to find out the truth. "A conclusion has to be reached to these allegations and if anyone is involved, he should be taken to task.

Imran said the PCB could not be expected to hold an impartial inquiry into the allegations and as such what was required for an independent body to get to the bottom of the truth.

He said from his experience as an international cricketer. he knew that one or two players in a team could not taint a match and for such a deed, at least six to seven players had to be involved. "Why just keep on accusing one or two players of fixing matches or of betting, if these things are taking place in Pakistan cricket, then every player should be properly investigated."

Imran said personally he did not believe in the allegations, but the fact was they were damaging Pakistan cricket and the sooner a logical conclusion was reached, the better for everyone. "Which is why I am calling for an impartial and independent inquiry into them."
