DCC has taken steps to clean city during Eid

The authorities of Dhaka City Corporation (DCC) has made arrangement to keep the city clean during the Eid-ul-Azha, reports UNB.

Over one hundred trucks and adequate number of cleaners under a task force will start working from the afternoon of the Eid day to remove the wastes of the sacrificial animals.

The DCC authorities have urged all concerned to dispose the wastes of by burying it under the earth or dump it at the dustbins instead of throwing it away here and there or dump it at the drains and manholes.

In a statement, DCC has also requested the cattle traders not to hamper vehicular traffic by selling cattle on the roads. The authorities urged them to use only the temporary market places in the city earmarked by the corporation for the purpose of trading the sacrificial animals, said a press release.

They also requested the lease owners of the makeshift cattle markets not to dump the filth and wastes on the roads and at their will.
